My Lady Domino 2015-10-20 author Jennifer Rothschild has a story for you it's about an unlikely couple an unusual courtship a beautiful wedding and an illicit affair despite this situation the marriage did not fail it flourished here is the story of Hosea's love for Gomer a woman who might have disappeared into her transgressions if not for the love of her husband it's a beautiful illustration of the story of God and Israel believe it or not it's your story too God chose you and loves you if you wander off he will find you if you are afraid he will reassure you if you are broken he will restore you if you are ashamed he will cover you if you give up on him he will not give up on you no matter where you are God sees who you are and loves you faithfully through the story of Hosea and Gomer God tenderly reaches out to you and whispers my daughter my name and nature are love my name makes you lovely because I am worthy I make you worthy I am here to remind you of who you are you are never invisible to me

Going My Own Way 1984-04-12 this book is not for spiritual sissies it is not for the fainthearted it is also not intended in any way to condemn or frighten anyone but it is intended to set a fire in the midst of the modern church and call the children of God back to holiness and purity and the fear of the Lord it is time to prepare our wedding garments revelation tells us that we are the ones who prepare our own garments revelation 19:7 let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to him for the marriage of the Lamb has come and his bride has made herself ready if you truly have a call of God on your life you will very often find yourself in circumstances not only not of your own making but also circumstances which are not in any way pleasant or comfortable they are circumstances you never would have chosen for yourself yet here you are and you are in the right square in the midst of them God has a way of preparing his own to bring them to a place of humility in this process he creates servants who have learned to be yielded obedient and trustworthy psalm 24:3-5 who may ascend into the hill of the Lord and who may stand in his holy place he who has clean hands and a pure heart who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood and has not sworn deceitfully he shall receive a blessing from the Lord and righteousness from the god of his salvation don t you think it s time

Onstage, Offstage 2011-11-29 after the break up of a long distance relationship kaya began to write from the depths of her soul while struggling to become empowered and grounded in her own life who i had become was someone i didnt really know this woman didnt fit the stereotypes i had grown up with i had not been raised to have a voice nor to know my truth when i began to write floodgates began to open i developed a new clarity about my emotions this replaced the space in my heart and life where there was once only confusion and uncertainty as i began to write and share my words with other women i developed more courage and began to overcome my fears about creating my own unique path to follow kayas poems about her journey of self discovery and transformation at midlife have common themes for all women struggling to give birth to their own voice

In My Own Way 1975-01-01 life is a rich complex noisy bumpy journey this book is a companion for your travels along your unique path it is a collection of stories that shaped me and of the lessons that are available if we are present enough to pay attention and learn from the experience this isn t a traditional self help book but it can be a personal growth book if you re looking for a little push towards thoughtfully questioning the weird and wonderful world in my journey i have discovered the value of being considerate about how i go through life i am happiest when i pay attention when i am aware of my thoughts and feelings and how they impact the people and the world around me i designed this book for people like me to slow down my recommendation is to read one entry per week for a year but i also suffer from the affliction of rejecting authority so read however many you want if you opt to follow my advice assume each topic applies directly to you your mission is to determine how to apply my story and the stories and lessons from others that have inspired me along the way to your circumstances be creative and be open the less a subject seems relevant to you the harder you should try to prove that impulse wrong consider discussing the topic with those in your life each week intentionally apply the ideas check in to see how it went be honest with yourself if it doesn t go well be curious be kind be whole do good things

Techniques In Adlerian Psychology 2013-09-27 poetic critique is that not an oxymoron do these two forms of behavior the poetic and the critical not pull in different even opposite directions for many scholars working in the humanities today they largely do but that has not always been the case friedrich schlegel for one believed that critique worthy of its name must itself be poetic only then would it stand a chance of responding adequately to the work of art taking schlegel s idea of poetische kritik as a starting point this volume reflects on the possibility of drawing these alleged opposites closer together in light of current debates about the legacy of critique it investigates whether a concept such as poetic critique or poetic criticism lends itself to enriching our intellectual practice by engaging with the poetic potential of criticism and the critical value of art and literature

The Mothers' Journal and Family Visitant 1872 middle aged mrs warren is a madam proprietress of a string of successful brothels her daughter vivie is a modern young woman but not so modern that she s not shocked to discover the source of her mother s wealth the clash of these two strong willed but culturally constrained victorian women is the spark that ignites the ironic wit of one of george bernard shaw s greatest plays a withering critique of male domination sexual hypocrisy and societal convention initially banned after its

1893 publication with its startling frankness Mrs Warren's Profession remains a powerful work of progressive theater Irish playwright George Bernard Shaw 1856-1950 won the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1925 and an Academy Award for adapted screenplay in 1938 the only person to achieve both honors among his many renowned plays are Arms and the Man 1894 Candida 1894 Man and Superman 1903 Major Barbara 1905 and Pygmalion 1913

Wine Country Cannibals 2017-01-30 within the pages of this book are contained the outstanding addresses given by Dr George S Arundale during the 1932 sessions of Wheaton Institute Summer School and Convention of the American Theosophical Society Discipleship glorious and inspiring is the golden motif which runs like a stirring song through every talk to its triumphant climax in the address Mount Everest this mightiest peak towering symbol of the grandeur of the heights attainable by man's own divinity rightly represents the goal of our aspiration as also the difficulties and obstacles to be surmounted on the way of ascent it is a vivid and heroic drama which is given by Dr Arundale with all the dynamic power so splendidly at his command but a drama which challenges the aspirant to responsibility of leadership in the world's thought and activity and imposes the obligation of joyous and selfless service great is the world's need during the period of transition through which it is passing and Dr Arundale makes it abundantly clear that the goal of each man's Mount Everest may be attained only as he turns outward to his fellows in wise and strong helpfulness there can be no greater glory than to leave the lower self behind in the selfless service of others and on entering the temple of one's own godhood to find the door opening into the world of the great ones who have attained Mount Everest

The Bone is Pointed 1998-09-14 many books have been written on the subject of death and dying over the last twenty five years yet none provides a comprehensive spiritual paradigm combined with practical guidance for resounding effectively and compassionately to be most common difficulties and challenges of the dying Christine S Longaker's uncompromising and uplifting book does it all and is based on her own personal experiences her study and work with Sogyal Rinpoche and on the workshops she now holds all over Europe and the USA

The Atheist's Primer 2010-04-06 a landmark in New Zealand literary scholarship this book provides an extraordinary insight into the formative years of one of New Zealand's most significant poets included are 56 letters written by James K Baxter to his slightly older friend Noel Ginn who was at the time imprisoned as a conscientious objector in these letters a teenage Baxter pours out his ideas and feelings on life philosophy and his own work included are the complete texts of the 255 poems written at the time and discussed in the letters the introduction an important work of biographical criticism in its own right puts Baxter's ideas and interests within the context of the wider public events and intellectual and spiritual currents of his time
