the direction that american metaphysical religion is taking metaphysical shadows the persistence of donne herbert vaughan and marvell in contemporary poetry examines the ways in which the poetry of john donne george herbert henry vaughan and andrew marvell continues to speak to working poets today modern anglophone poets from t s eliot and archibald macleish in the 1920s and 1930s to seamus heaney maureen boyle alfred corn anne cluysenaar kimberly johnson and jericho brown in the twenty first century have found in the work of john donne george herbert henry vaughan and andrew marvell a strikingly modern intellectualism an emotional intensity and a verbal richness that have inspired their own poems traces of this inspiration appear in echoes allusions direct responses and similarities in approach and method as poets create new work in their own distinct voices such contemporary engagements furnish us with cues for how literary studies might approach the literature of the past without sacrificing it in the name of critique they also demonstrate the continuing relevance of seventeenth century english metaphysical poetry in the twenty first century the poems of donne herbert vaughan and marvell still have the power to cast shadows this pariyatti edition ebook of the collected wheel publications vol 1 is of the renowned wheel publications i e the wheel series which significant and controversial african american muslim movement founded in brooklyn in the 1960s it spread through the prolific production and dissemination of literature and lecture tapes and became famous for continuously reinventing its belief system in this book michael muhammad knight studies the development of aac nih discourse over a period of thirty years tracing a surprising consistency behind a facade of serial reinvention it is popularly believed that the aac nih community abandoned islam for black israelite religion ufo religion and egyptosophy however knight sees coherence in aac nih media explaining how in reality the community taught that the prophet muhammad was a hebrew who adhered to israelite law muhammad s heavenly ascension took place on a spaceship and abraham enlisted the help of a pharaonic regime to genetically engineer pigs as food for white people against narratives that treat the aac nih community as a postmodernist deconstruction of religious categories knight demonstrates that aac nih discourse is most productively framed within a broader african american metaphysical history in which boundaries between traditions remain quite permeable unexpected and engrossing metaphysical africa brings to light points of intersection between communities and traditions often regarded as separate and distinct in doing so it helps move the field of religious studies beyond conventional categories of orthodoxy and heterodoxy challenging assumptions that inform not only the study of this particular religious community but also the field at large views as they developed between 1894 and 1902 this period saw the inauguration of analytic philosophy through the work of moore and bertrand russell moore s early views are examined in detail through unpublished archival material including surviving letters diaries notes of lectures attended papers for cambridge societies and drafts of early work in order to revise the established view that the origin of analytic philosophy at cambridge was an abrupt split from f h bradley s absolute idealism traditional accounts of this period have highlighted the anti psychologism of frege s logic but have not explored the impact of this movement more broadly anti psychologism was a key feature of the work of moore s teachers on the nature of the mind and its objects in their interpretation of kant and in ethics moore s teachers g f stout and james ward were significant contributors to the late 19th century debates in mental science and the developing new science of psychology henry sidgwick s criticisms of kant and bradley and his leading work in ethics were key influences on moore moore s trinity fellowship dissertations are essential historical
