Bronze Age Settlement and Land-Use in Thy, Northwest Denmark (Volume 1 & 2)

2018-06-04 this two volume monograph about the region of thy in the early bronze age provides a high resolution archaeological and ecological model of the organisation of landscape settlements and households during the period 1500 1100 bc bordering the north sea to the west and the calmer waters of the limfjord to the east the region of thy in denmark experienced four centuries of intense economic and demographic expansion by combining results from environmental and economic research pollen and palaeo botanical analyses with intensive field surveys and excavations of farmsteads with exceptional preservation it has been possible to open a window to the changes that transformed bronze age society and its environment during a few centuries of exceptional expansion and wealth consumption the results from this interdisciplinary venture made it possible to link together the histories of local farmsteads with the wider regional and global history of the bronze age in north western europe during this period here is much to feed on for students and researchers of the bronze age alike

Places and Politics in an Age of Globalization 2001-02-07 this ambitious work provides a unique statement on the question of place based activism and its relationship to powerful forces of international capital arguing that specific places around the world are sites for the defense and enhancement of daily life in the context of rapidly expanding global technologies and investment options the contributors reach for a vision of social development that supports sustainable humane cultures bringing together the local and the global this work provides the first sustained linkage of ethnic groups in diaspora to macrocosmic processes of world capital that inevitably reach down to mediate even the most local experiences the essays ranging in their discussion of place from los angeles and new york to new zealand and indonesia offer both reasoned argument and authoritative information on how local experience interacts with larger processes of global capital and the diasporic phenomenon the book will be an invaluable resource and launching point for scholars and students in ethnic and identity studies and will interest all readers exploring the production of place and identification

Age Discrimination 2012-08-28 age age discrimination looks at how both young and old can be penalised by prejudice against their age group following recent changes in the law the issue of age discrimination has come to the fore the new legislation will extend legal oversight of age related discrimination to the provision of facilities goods and services as well as employment professor sargeant provides a thorough review of the consequences of these changes and their implications for businesses and service providers public or private this comprehensive new book like its predecessor age discrimination in employment is essential to practitioners responsible for hr issues finance operations service delivery quality and customer relations and for those with a policy focus or academic interest in diversity issues

Globalism in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Age 2023-09-04 although it is fashionable among modernists to claim that globalism emerged only since ca 1800 the opposite can well be documented through careful comparative and transdisciplinary studies as this volume demonstrates offering a wide range of innovative perspectives on often neglected literary philosophical historical or medical documents texts images ideas knowledge and objects migrated throughout the world already in the pre modern world even if the quantitative level compared to the modern world might have been different in fact by means of translations and trade for instance global connections were established and maintained over the centuries archetypal motifs developed in many literatures indicate how much pre modern people actually shared but we also discover hard core facts of global economic exchange import of exotic medicine and on another level intensive intellectual debates on religious issues literary evidence serves best to expose the extent to which contacts with people in foreign countries were imaginable often desirable and at times ~~feared of course the pre-modern world was much more on the move and reached out to~~ distant lands out of curiosity economic interests and political and military concerns diplomats crisscrossed the continents and artists poets and craftsmen traveled widely we can identify for instance both the vikings and the arabs as global players long before the rise of modern globalism so this volume promises to rewrite many of our traditional notions about pre modern worldviews economic conditions and the literary sharing on a global level as perhaps best expressed by the genre of the fable

Age, Period and Cohort Effects 2020-11-05 age period and cohort effects statistical analysis and the identification problem gives a number of perspectives from top methodologists and applied researchers on the best ways to attempt to answer age period cohort related questions about society age period cohort apc analysis is a fundamental topic for any quantitative social scientist studying individuals over time at the same time it is also one of the most misunderstood and underestimated topics in quantitative methods as such this book is key reference material for researchers wanting to know how to deal with apc issues appropriately in their statistical modelling it deals with the identification problem caused by the co linearity of the three variables considers why some currently used methods are problematic and suggests ideas for what applied researchers interested in apc analysis should do whilst the perspectives are varied the book provides a unified view of the subject in a reader friendly way that will be accessible to social scientists with a moderate level of quantitative understanding across the social and health sciences

Gas Age 1897 for decades we have witnessed the emergence of a media age of illusion that is based on the principles of physics the multidimensionality immateriality and non locality of the unified field of energy and information as a virtual reality as a result a new paradigm shift has reframed the cognitive unconscious of individuals and collectives and generated a worldview in which mediated illusion prevails exploring the collective unconscious in a digital age investigates the cognitive significance of an altered mediated reality that appears to have all the dimensions of a dreamscape this book presents the idea that if the digital media sphere proves to be structurally and functionally analogous to a dreamscape the collective unconscious researched by carl jung and the cognitive unconscious researched by george lakoff are susceptible to research according to the parameters of hard science this pivotal research based publication is ideally designed for use by psychologists theorists researchers and graduate level students studying human cognition and the influence of the digital media revolution
