this is the definitive book on classical cats the cat has played a significant role in history from the earliest times well known is its role in the religion and art of ancient egypt no less than its association with witchcraft in the middle ages but when did the cat become a domestic companion and worker as well there has been much debate about the position of the cat in ancient greece and rome artistic representations are sometimes ambiguous and its role as a mouse catcher seems often to have been carried out by weasels yet other evidence clearly suggests that the cat was as important to greeks and romans as it is to many modern people this book is the first comprehensive survey of the evidence for cats in greece and rome and of their functions and representations in art donald engels draws on authors from aesop to aristotle on vase painting inscriptions and the plastic arts and on a thorough knowledge of zoology of the cat he also sets the ancient evidence in the wider context of the egyptian period that preceded it as well as the views of the church fathers who ushered antiquity into the middle ages my dear lads thanks to the care with which the egyptians depicted upon the walls of their sepulchers the minutest doings of their daily life to the dryness of the climate which has preserved these records uninjured for so many thousand years and to the indefatigable labor of modern investigators we know far more of the manners and customs of the egyptians of their methods of work their sports and amusements their public festivals and domestic life than we do of those of peoples comparatively modern my object in the present story has been to give you as lively a picture as possible of that life drawn from the bulky pages of sir j gardner wilkinson and other writers on the same subject i have laid the scene in the time of thotmes iii one of the greatest of the egyptian monarchs being surpassed only in glory and the extent of his conquests by rameses the great it is certain that thotmes carried the arms of egypt to the shores of the caspian and a people named the rebu with fair hair and blue eyes were among those depicted in the egyptian sculptures as being conquered and made tributary it is open to discussion whether the exodus of the jews from egypt took place in the reign of thotmes or many years subsequently some authors assigning it to the time of rameses without attempting to enter into this much discussed question i have assumed that the israelites were still in egypt at the time of thotmes and by introducing moses just at the time he began to take up the cause of the people to whom he belonged i leave it to be inferred that the exodus took place some forty years later i wish you to understand however that you are not to accept this date as being absolutely correct opinions differ widely upon it and as no allusion whatever has been discovered either to the exodus or to any of the events which preceded it among the records of egypt there is nothing to fix the date as occurring during the reign of any one among the long line of egyptian kings the term pharaoh used in the bible throws no light upon the subject as pharaoh simply means king and the name of no monarch bearing that appellation is to be found on the egyptian monuments i have in no way exaggerated the consequences arising from the slaying of the sacred cat as the accidental killing of any cat whatever was an offense punished by death throughout the history of egypt down to the time of the roman connection with that country

we are the cats of rekem descended from the sacred cats of the egyptian temple of bast we bear the mother s gift of language passed down since the days before time began so that we might speak our wisdom into the minds of the troubled human race we gather here to honor yeshua ben yosef friend of cats he who brings life to the earth whose light shines upon all flesh animal and human alike the cats of rekem opens in the fabled city of rekem petra jordan capital of ancient nabataea destroyed by earthquake and swallowed up by desert sands long ago francisco brings rekem to swirling glittering life in a kaleidoscopic pageant of exotic characters from a lost culture that reached its peak during the days of jesus of nazareth on the fringes of rekem s urban clamor cats quietly sun themselves eavesdropping and speaking their thoughts into human minds as the need arises 25 years have passed in rekem since the child yeshua s rescue in a cat out of egypt by zaidan a powerful caravan master and tikos an egyptian priestess fleeing egypt with a pregnant temple cat from bubastis tikos and zaidan have married the egyptian cats have interbred with wild cats from the hills and their descendants settled throughout the city with their chosen humans in an age of relentless empire building the independent nabataeans stubbornly hold to their own traditions defying the advancing roman empire and israel s grasping herod antipas yet rekem is increasingly caught up in the tide of strange new religions sweeping through the roman world zaidan tikos and their family worship yeshua s one god and cherish ties with the risen yeshua but the dark mysteries of isis seduce their daughter hinat into the goddess temple when tikos steps in to protect hinat king aretas is enraged by her insult to the gods who stand behind his throne all of zaidan s clan lie beneath the threat of his simmering wrath into this turmoil stumbles a bemused young apostle paul smuggled out of damascus by zaidan s sons yeshua s cat mari and mary magdalene still reeling from his vision on the damascus road paul is painfully confused about what his new life might be his arrival in rekem attracts the palace s attention loosing a flood of scandal and violence that endangers everyone around him as well as threatening his own future before it can even begin
