a gritty dark and devastating psychological thriller centring around three troubled girls in a children s home by the bestselling author of exquisite i was immediately ensnared into the devastating and dark world of the home and devoured it in one day a triumph holly seddon it s both a clear eyed and compassionate tale of the harm wreaked by commonplace abuse and a mystery that grips to the final page sunday times gripping sinister and utterly heartbreaking i absolutely loved it lisa hall one more little secret one more little lie when the body of a pregnant fifteen year old is discovered in a churchyard on christmas morning the community is shocked but unsurprised for hope lived in the home the residence of three young girls whose violent and disturbing pasts have seen them cloistered away as a police investigation gets underway the lives of hope lara and annie are examined and the staff who work at the home are interviewed leading to shocking and distressing revelations and clear evidence that someone is seeking revenge a gritty dark and devastating psychological thriller the home is also an emotive drama and a piercing look at the underbelly of society where children learn what they live if they are allowed to live at all so beautiful and haunting and ghostly and addictive and intense and sad and shocking just wow louise beech this is a perfect illustration of how fiction really can inform life read this be moved saddened but also enriched new books magazine a vividly disturbing eloquent and enthralling tale striking thought provoking compulsive storytelling
