Parliamentary Papers 1862 the military scholar and author of the human face of war analyses the nature of 20th century war and warfare in this wide ranging study the 20th century was possibly the most violent and turbulent century in history the wars waged in those ten decades reshaped the globe and wreaked an incalculable toll on human life in the hall of mirrors military analyst and historian jim storr explores what can we learn from war and warfare in the 20th century rather than presenting a narrative history the hall of mirrors takes a deep look at the nature of 20th century war and warfare storr looks at the strategy operational art and tactics employed he analyzes how technology developed and how those technologies affected military events he also considers the effect of individual human beings and organizations by 1919 the first world war was already over millions had died empires had crumbled new nations had been born and yet the so called great war was merely setting the stage for another eighty years of crisis conflict and change of alliances forged and broken of apparent chaos that can appear futile and yet has enormous consequence

Research and Development 1980 betrayed attacked lost life has returned to normal for hanna ned and jik after their adventures in the tempestuous sulu sea but then dad heads to borneo to look for gold and everything goes horribly wrong dad is accused of murder and hanna ned and jik know they must go into the jungle to prove his innocence it is a race against time but the tropical forest is filled with predators both animal and human and what deadly secret waits in the heart of the jungle

Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Appropriations 1973 cummings book is very interesting refreshing and intellectually stimulating it should be a mandatory textbook for all serious students of management management learning stephen cummings recreating strategy is currently the best book on strategy combining a holistic and critical understanding of the issue stewart clegg university of technology sydney an imaginative attempt to bring together and apply the many analytical frameworks relating to the organization as a whole into strategy theory and practice written for students on strategy change management and more general management and organization theory courses encourages students to question assumptions and think creatively about strategy and management stimulating and original long range planning in this intriguing book cummings claims to be surprised that academics critical of management theory don t critique its history and proposes a kind of liberation theology in response but this is not as doctrinaire it s more like replacing some well justified habits with a refreshing originality of approach the outcome is stimulating the author offers a cogently argued deconstruction of some well known frameworks in strategy and delivers his own reinterpretation of strategic discourse there are five longer case studies in the book and several shorter vignettes scattered throughout early chapters as well as pedagogical aids at the end of each chapter best of biz the business information site do you worry about organizations becoming slaves to markets do you wish that organizations had the nerve to build their own ethos rather than just grubbing for profit do you aspire to inspiration rather than perspiration why does management practice get in the way of thinking and creativity stephen cummings provides insight and guidance in a book of genuine scholarship and creativity john mcgee president of the strategic management society usa management courses need more of what stephen is offering he wants us to go on an unlearning curve one which leads to fresh thinking about strategy and the emerging roles and responsibilities of business and companies this book not only tells us where we are coming from but more importantly it inspires us to think profoundly about where we could go it s also a very good read josephine green director of trends and strategy philips recreating strategy provides a challenging examination of the emergence of management which combines postmodern and orthodox perspectives stephen cummings is able to provide not only a fresh treatment of strategy and ethics but also to engage with a variety of potential audiences he provokes and informs in equal measure richard whipp cardiff university a truly eclectic approach to strategy intellectually capturing the book is great fun to read at the same time a must for those who want to discuss management beyond styles fads and fashions hubert wagner qonsult recreating strategy is written for students of strategy change management and more general management and organization theory courses it will provide a better understanding of how to bring together and apply the many analytical frameworks relating to the organization as a whole stephen cummings challenges the view that there is never one best framework and shows why the latest theory is not necessarily better than earlier ones the textbook includes short and long case studies interesting pictorial aids and examples and a generally more participative and rewarding approach than that offered by more mainstream texts powerpoint slides to accompany the book are now also available by clicking on the link to sample chapters and resources in the left hand margin the book also offers more scope for individual lecturers who wish to encourage students to question assumptions and think creatively about strategy and management
