13 essays by authors from the fields of literature art history film history and folklore this collection reveals the flexibility of the legend just as the modern legend takes the form current to its generation the myth of return generates a new legend with each telling as these authors show return can come in the form of a noble king or a caribbean immigrant with the mystery of an art theft or a dying boy s dream the legends of king arthur have not only endured for centuries but also flourished in constant retellings and new stories built around the central themes with the coming of motion pictures arthur was destined to hit the screen this edition of cinema arthuriana revised in 2002 presents 20 essays on the topic of the recurring presence of the legend in film and television from 1904 to 2001 they cover such films as excalibur 1981 and monty python and the holy grail 1975 television productions such as the mists of avalon 2001 and french and german films about the quest for apocryphal writings took up this intriguing question notably including the early christian latin text the life of adam and eve this account describes the failed attempt of the couple to return to paradise by fasting whilst immersed in a river and explores how they coped with new experiences such as childbirth and death brian murdoch guides the reader through the many variant versions of the development of the apocryphal texts whilst presenting a fascinating insight into the flourishing medieval tradition of adam and eve a tradition that the reformation would largely curtail stories from tribune calls a buddhist version of conan the barbarian he raised holy hell as the baddest ape in ancient china until the lord buddha himself dropped a mountain on him now the monkey king will get his parole with one condition he must escort a buddhist nun through the demon haunted wastes of the silk road on an impossible quest reach india and bring back a collection of sacred scrolls in race and resistance literature and politics in asian america viet nguyen argues that asian american intellectuals have idealized asian america ignoring its saturation with capitalist practices this idealization of asian america means that asian american intellectuals can neither grapple with their culture s ideological diversity nor recognize their own involvement with capitalist practices such as the selling of racial identity making his case through the example of literature which remains a critical arena of cultural production for asian americans nguyen demonstrates that literature embodies the complexities conflicts and potential future options of asian american culture these post proceedings contain the revised versions of the papers presented at the symposium on objects and databases which was held in sophia antipolis france june 13 2000 in conjunction with the fourteenth european conference on object oriented programming ecoop 2000 this event continued the t dition historical and regional novels beginning with waverley and culminating in the bride of lammermoor and a legend of montrose in the process he made the author of waverley into the most successful and famous novelist in the world by choosing to remain anonymous however scott deliberately separated this new achievemtn from the fame he had already gained as editor and poet this study of the first and major phase of scott s career as a novelist reconsiders his act of secession from his own literary past and examines the interconnections between scott the antiquarian and editor
