this volume presents a selection of hubert dreyfus s pioneering work in bringing phenomenology and existentialism to bear on the philosophical and scientific study of the mind each of the thirteen essays interprets develops and extends the insights of his predecessors working in the european philosophical tradition one of dreyfus central contributions to reading the historical canon of philosophy comes from his recognition that great philosophers help us to understand the background practices of a culture the practices that shape and embody our most basic understanding of ourselves and the things and situations we encounter in our world background practices are all too often overlooked completely or else their importance is misunderstood each chapter in this volume shows in one way or another how a broad range of philosophical topics can only be properly understood when we recognize how they are grounded in the background practices that shape our lives and give meaning to our activities our tasks our normative commitments our aims and our goals

most scholars link the origin of politics to the formation of human societies but in this innovative work tilo schabert takes it even further back to our very births drawing on mythical philosophical religious and political thought from around the globe including america europe the middle east and china the second birth proposes a transhistorical and transcultural theory of politics rooted in political cosmology with impressive erudition schabert explores the physical fundamentals of political life unveiling a profound new insight our bodies actually teach us politics schabert traces different figurations of power inherent to our singular existence things such as numbers time thought and desire showing how they render our lives political ones and thus how politics exists in us individually long before it plays a role in the establishment of societies and institutions through these figurations of power schabert argues we learn how to institute our own government within the political forces that already surround us to create our own world within the one into which we have been born in a stunning vision of human agency this book ultimately sketches a political cosmos in which we are all builders in which we can be at once political and free
