word lover s mount everest the oxford english dictionary in 26 chapters filled with sharp wit sheer delight and a documentarian s keen eye shea shares his year inside the oed delivering a hair pulling eye crossing account of reading every word from a critically acclaimed cultural and literary critic a definitive history and analysis of the memoir from saint augustine s confessions to augusten burroughs s running with scissors from julius caesar to ulysses grant from mark twain to david sedaris the art of memoir has had a fascinating life and deserves its own biography cultural and literary critic ben yagoda traces the memoir from its birth in early christian writings and roman generals journals all the way up to the banner year of 2007 which saw memoirs from and about dogs rock stars bad dads good dads alternadads waitresses george foreman iranian women and a slew of other illustrious persons and animals in a time when memoir seems ubiquitous and is still highly controversial yagoda tackles the autobiography and memoir in all its forms and iterations he discusses the fraudulent memoir and provides many examples from the past and addresses the ramifications and consequences of these books spanning decades and nations styles and subjects he analyzes the hallmark memoirs of the western tradition rousseau ben franklin henry adams gertrude stein edward gibbon among others yagoda also describes historical trends such as native american captive memoirs slave narratives courtier dramas where one had to pay to not be included in a courtesan's memoir throughout the idea of memory and truth how we remember and how well we remember lives is intimately explored yagoda s elegant examination of memoir is at once a history of literature and taste and an absorbing glimpse into what humans find interesting one another discusses the various types of immersion writing including travel memoir and journalism and explains some of the issues that writers encounter in reporting about the factual world and in describing other people and their own inner experiences can you drink a glass of balderdash what do you call the part of a dog s back it can t scratch and if serendipitously you find yourself in serendip then where exactly are you the answers to all of these questions and a great many more can be found in the pages of the oxford english dictionary the definitive record of the english language and there is no better guide to the dictionary bucket 2023-02-04 math many wonderments than the former chief editor of the oed john simpson simpson spent almost four decades of his life immersed in the intricacies of our language and guides us through its history with charmingly laconic wit in the word detective an intensely personal memoir and a joyful celebration of english he weaves a story of how words come into being and sometimes disappear how culture shapes the language we use and how technology has transformed not only the way we speak and write but also how words are made throughout he enlivens his narrative with lively excavations and investigations of individual words from deadline to online and back to 101 yes it s a word all the while reminding us that the seemingly mundane words can you name the four different meanings of ma are often the most interesting ones but simpson also reminds us of the limitations of language spending his days in the oed s house of words his family at home is forced to confront the challenges of wordlessness a brilliant and deeply humane expedition through the world of words the word detective will delight and inspire any lover of language a pathbreaking introduction to eighteenth century metaphors of the mind that recasts the grand narrative of the enlightenment in terms of its tropes and figures an encyclopedic dictionary along the lines of voltaire s classic dictionnaire philosophique metaphors of mind provides an in depth look at the myriad ways in which enlightenment writers used figures of speech to characterize the mind drawn from brad pasanek s massive online archive metaphorized net this volume constitutes a veritable treasury of mental metaphorics dividing the book into eleven broad metaphorical categories animals coinage court empire fetters impressions inhabitants metal mirror rooms and writing pasanek maps out constellations of metaphors he frames his collection of literary excerpts in each section with a more descriptive and theoretical discussion of what he calls desultory reading a form of unsystematic perusal of writing frequently employed by enlightenment thinkers by surveying the printed past alongside the digital present the book treats eighteenth century writing as its topic while essentially exemplifying its rhetorical approach more than an exercise in quotation this intellectual history offers illuminating readings of fragmentary literary works and confrontations with neoclassical and contemporary theories of metaphor the book s entries complicate received ideas about locke s blank slate question m h abrams claims about mirrors and lamps and chart changing frequencies of metal metaphors in a moment of industrial revolution the book also responds to current anxieties about reading and the mass digitization of literature touching on recent discussions of distant reading shallow reading and surface reading promoting critical and creative anachronism metaphors of mind redefines the notion of an archive in the age of amazon and google books precious old books found in unlikely places from the family
