one land two states imagines a new vision for israel and palestine in a situation where the peace process has failed to deliver an end of conflict if the land cannot be shared by geographical division and if a one state solution remains unacceptable the book asks can the land be shared in some other way leading palestinian and israeli experts along with international diplomats and scholars answer this timely question by examining a scenario with two parallel state structures both covering the whole territory between the mediterranean and the jordan river allowing for shared rather than competing claims of sovereignty such a political architecture would radically transform the nature and stakes of the israel palestine conflict open up for israelis to remain in the west bank and maintain their security position enable palestinians to settle in all of historic palestine and transform jerusalem into a capital for both of full equality and independence all without disturbing the demographic balance of each state exploring themes of security resistance diaspora globalism and religion as well as forms of political and economic power that are not dependent on claims of exclusive territorial sovereignty this pioneering book offers new ideas for the resolution of conflicts worldwide theologian philosopher and political radical Martin Buber 1878-1965 was actively committed to a fundamental economic and political reconstruction of society as well as the pursuit of international peace in his voluminous writings on Arab-Jewish relations in Palestine Buber united his religious and philosophical teachings with his politics which he felt were essential to a life of public dialogue and service to God collected in A Land of Two Peoples are the private and open letters addresses and essays in which Buber advocated binationalism as a solution to the conflict in the Middle East a committed Zionist Buber steadfastly articulated the moral necessity for reconciliation and accommodation between the Arabs and Jews from the Balfour Declaration of November 1917 to his death in 1965 he campaigned passionately for a one-state solution with the Middle East embroiled in religious and ethnic chaos A Land of Two Peoples remains as relevant today as it was when it was first published more than twenty years ago this timely reprint which includes a new preface by Paul Mendes-Flohr offers context and depth to current affairs and will be welcomed by those interested in middle eastern studies and political theory
