Fireworks Algorithm 2014-12-01 in the early decades of european integration the enforcement of eu competition law was highly centralised virtually all enforcement actions under articles 101 and 102 tfeu were initiated by the european commission more recently the enforcement of eu competition law has become less centralised many would say even decentralised in 2004 essentially in an effort to increase enforcement capacity in the wake of eu enlargement the involvement of member state competition authorities was significantly reinforced by national authorities being given power to pursue infringements of eu competition law largely on the basis of their domestic enforcement regimes this combination of decentralisation and enforcement autonomy raises questions about the relationship between eu law and national law as well as about the costs of enforcement this new book links these questions by analysing how competences in the area of sanctions are distributed between eu and national law and how this influences the costs of enforcement the author's conclusions which highlight the economic implications of the choices made by competition authorities courts and legislators will be of use to all the above in further developing eu competition policy the phd thesis on which this book is based was declared runner up in the 2013 concurrences awards

Rhetoric Across Borders 2016 handbook of child adolescent tuberculosis cover

Handbook of Child and Adolescent Tuberculosis 2014-04-28 research within the disciplines is designed to help reference librarians and students studying to become librarians gain that deeper understanding of disciplinary differences that allows them to comfortably solve information needs rather than merely responding to questions and practical knowledge about how to work with researchers in a library setting the book has three chapters that cover the disciplines at the broadest level humanities social sciences and sciences plus supplemental chapters that focus on associated disciplines research in history business and engineering research using government sources and across disciplines interdisciplinary and critical information literacy for the second edition of research within the disciplines several chapters have been added that together give a broader and deeper overview of research across all subject areas research practices of creative and performing artists and of clinical scientists research in international documents research strategies for foreign language materials and visual literacy across the disciplines major shifts in technology have been accounted for that have changed how we do research and have expanded the range of resources available to researchers in all disciplines all of the chapters have been rewritten or heavily revised this is much more a new book than a new edition

Research within the Disciplines 2020-04-23 in his best selling travel memoir The Innocents Abroad Mark Twain punningly refers to the black man who introduces him to Venetian Renaissance painting as a contraband guide a term coined to describe fugitive slaves who assisted Union armies during the Civil War by means of this and similar case studies Paul H. D. Kaplan documents the ways in which American cultural encounters with Europe and its venerable artistic traditions influenced nineteenth century concepts of race in the United States Americans of the Civil War era were struck by the presence of people of color in European art and society and American artists and authors both black and white adapted and transformed European visual material to respond to the particular struggles over the identity of African Americans taking up the work of both well and lesser known artists and writers such as the travel writings of Mark Twain and William Dean Howells the paintings of German American Emanuel Leutze the epistolary exchange between John Ruskin and Charles Eliot Norton newspaper essays written by Frederick Douglass and William J. Wilson and the sculpture of freed slave Eugène Warburg Kaplan lays bare how racial attitudes expressed in mid nineteenth century American art were deeply inflected by European traditions by highlighting the contributions people of black African descent made to the fine arts in the United States during this period along with the ways in which they were represented Contraband Guides provides a fresh perspective on the theme of race in Civil War era American art it will appeal to art historians to specialists in African American studies and American studies and to general readers interested in American art and African American history
