The story imparts lessons about friendship, acceptance, and the beauty of seeing beyond surface appearances.

Join Billy Bunny and Daddy Fox as they embark on a heartwarming journey of friendship and discovery, reminding us that kindness and understanding can bridge the gaps between even the most unlikely of companions.

Bunny: "Bunny, wake up! It's time. What's the matter?" Sleepily mumbled Little Bunny Brown, making his words all run together like molasses candy that has been out in the hot sun.

Sue: "Bunny, asked now that he had his eyes open, he looked over the side of his small bed to see his sister standing beside it. She had left her own little room and had run into her brother's.

Sue: "Bunny, asked again, why it's time to get up, bunny, and Sue opened her brown eyes more widely as she tried to get the sleepy feeling out of them. It's time to get up, time to get up, so early. Oh, Sue, it isn't Christmas morning, is it, Sue, and with that thought, Bunny sat up suddenly in his bed.

Sue: "Christmas, no, of course not," said Sue, who though only a little over five years of age, a year younger than was Bunny, sometimes acted as though older than the blue-eyed little chap who was now as widely awake as his sister.

Sue: "Well, if it isn't Christmas, and we don't have to go to the kindergarten school, cause it's closed, why do I have to get up so early?" Bunny wanted to know. Bunny Brown was a great one for asking questions, so was his sister Sue, but Sue would often wait a while and find things out for herself instead of asking strangers what certain things meant bunny always seemed in a hurry and his mother used to say he could ask more questions than several grown folks could answer why do you want me to get up so early bunny asked again he was wide awake now why bunny brown have you forgotten asked sue with a queer look in her brown eyes don t you remember aunt lu is coming to visit us to day and we re going down to the station to meet her oh yes that s so i did forget all about it bunny said i guess it was because i dreamed so hard in the night sue i dreamed i had a new rocking horse and he ran away with me up hill rocking horses can t run away sue said shaking her head the hair of which needed brushing as it had become tousled in her sleep bunny brown and his sister sue and their shetland pony by laura lee hope published by good press good press publishes a wide range of titles that encompasses every genre from well known classics literary fiction and non fiction to forgotten or yet undiscovered gems of world literature we issue the books that need to be read each good press edition has been meticulously edited and formatted to boost readability for all e readers and devices our goal is to produce ebooks that are user friendly and accessible to everyone in a high quality digital format sweet thing one and two are bunnies of remarkable delight as you will confirm as you read this book bunny bunda s first adventures a wonderful book of timeless tales of love joy tears and hope when a toy is lost a child hopes for the impossible behind the scenes the impossible is happening the story of bunny bunda is a unique exciting realistic adventure that will help bring your child s imagination to an new exciting level stirring intrigue imagination and inspiration a great story to read to the younger children for children entering daycare or school a great adventure story for them to read along with you and start to ask questions of intrigue as the toy continues on its journey through countries over seas with children and adults being loved forgotten and found it s a book that will be picked up time and time again crime s a man s business so they say who was that small figure then slender enough to trot along the moonlit track swift and low virtually invisible who was it that covered the green signal with a glove to stop the train while the two others took care of the driver and his mate could it have been one queenie dove survivor of the depression and the blitz not to mention any number of scrapes with the bertie bunny was lying in bed one bright sunny morning with alfie his beloved teddy bear tucked securely under his arm bertie s nostrils twitched excitedly as they detected the smell of food in this case baking coming from the kitchen bertie threw poor alfie aside as he leapt out of bed and pulled on his dressing gown and slippers alfie lay in a heap on the floor as bertie flew down the corridor to the kitchen and towards the smell of baking that was coming from it when bertie reached the kitchen mum was nearly up to her elbows in flour and was kneading the dough for bread rolls and splits as part of her preparations for this afternoon s tea party she had invited some of her friends over for a girly afternoon of reminiscing about the olden days when they were young unfortunately mum had been unable to employ someone to look after bertie so he would be sitting in on the tea party a thought that filled mum with absolute dread bertie scampered across the kitchen and clambered up onto an area of the work surface that did not have flour on it at the corner of his eye bertie espied three bowls of butter cream one was ordinary butter cream for the butterfly buns which had just come out of the oven one had coffee flavouring and one had chocolate butter cream the last two were for two sponge cakes that were cooling on a couple of racks nearby bertie stretched out his paw and was about to dip it in one of the bowls when he felt a sharp slap on his paw mum had seen a beige furry paw coming towards one of her mixing bowls knowing whose it was she reached out just in time to prevent bertie from dipping a paw or two into the icing bertie squealed as he withdrew his paw and rubbed it mum had hurt him and he did not like it gently mum lifted bertie down from the worktop and urged him to take his bath after wiping her floury hands she ran his bath and laid out his clothes in the bedroom she felt sorry for alfie who was still lying on the floor where bertie had left him she picked his bear up made his bed and tidied up and then went back to prepare bertie s breakfast meanwhile bertie was laying in his bath telling fred his duck about the day that was to come and how he was looking forward to eating the tea that mum was in the midst of preparing mum was still baking when bertie having had his bath came out for his breakfast mum had made the bread rolls and splits and was now preparing sausage rolls and vol au vents bertie s mouth watered and when he had eaten his boiled egg and soldiers bertie begged to be allowed to help with the tea party gently mum advised that it might be better if bertie went outside to play but warned him not to get dirty bertie played with his football and dreamed that he was scoring in the world cup finals as he played he gave a running commentary to anyone who was listening unfortunately there was no one there but bertie did not care he was having such a good time in the midst of his numerous celebrations after scoring a classic goal bertie heard his mother calling him obediently bertie trotted inside mum had iced the cakes and sponges which left the mixing bowls with the leftover butter creams now licking out bowls was right up his street bertie virtually climbed inside the bowls to ensure that every last scrape was out of them when he had finished he was covered in butter cream of all flavours from the tips of his ears to the ends of his feet bertie was filthy mum was far from happy as she stripped bertie of his clothing and placed him in his second bath of the morning his shorts and tee shirt were placed straight in the wash and a fresh towel was laid out for him to dry himself mum searched out another set of shorts and a tee shirt whilst bertie smiled as he lay once again in the bath with fred meanwhile mum had finished all the baking and had placed the food under cloths ready to bring down to the lounge l
