Abstracts of Science and Technology in Japan 1990

this title explores an area of tertiary education that is currently understudied this is the extent and nature of differentiation and articulation in african tertiary education systems the overall finding is that the binary system is dominant characterised by universities and polytechnics as distinct types of institutions differentiation is clearly evident in africa however though varied in nature and extent the differentiation is mostly horizontal as opposed to vertical articulation on the other hand seems to be in its infancy as some universities in their admission requirements d
