the town of preston had never known serious crime but that all changed on a sweltering july morning when janine compton was murdered she was the daughter of the prominent compton family and with her death came heavy pressure to find her killer but was aaron tully the likeable but inexperienced town cop capable of taking on such an investigation his pride told him that he was the townsfolk believed otherwise but tullys investigative abilities soon silenced all doubters jordan finnie the victims onetime lover was arrested and charged with the murder with a mountain of evidence to back up the murder charge tully could then sit back and wait for the upcoming trial to commence he had no doubt that it would be a mere formality however five months later a man walked into his office with a nuisance complaint while following up on the complaint tully stumbled onto a new piece of evidence evidence which basically eliminated finnie as the killer now with the shame of his inept police work hanging over his head his policing contract with the town about to run out the question became this was there enough time left to start over again spotted tail the great head chief of the brule sioux was an intelligent and farseeing man who realized alone of all the sioux that the old way of life was doomed and that to war with the white soldiers was certain suicide although he was branded a traitor by many members of his tribe the canny brule with all the skill of an accomplished diplomat fought a delaying action over the council tables with the high officials in washington the only man in the tribe big enough to stand up to the whites and insist upon the rights of the brulés under existing treaties with the u s government he used every means available to him short of a shooting war to protect his people from being rushed into the white man s ways by government agents and eastern friends of the indians thus the story of spotted tail is the story of the brulé struggle against being made into imitation whites overnight even when they were forced on the reservation where they were expected to farm the land raise cattle send their children to school and adopt christianity all at once the assassination of spotted tail in 1881 by his political enemy crow dog ended the history of the brulé sioux as a tribe with the great voice stilled at rosebud agency only the voices of little men were heard quarreling about little matters with his death the government effected its purpose to break the tribal organization to bits and put the brulés under the control of their white agent
