The British National Bibliography 2009 stephen frears has a career approaching over half a century directing films of astonishing variety beauty and daring and yet many often have trouble remembering his name the ironic filmmaking of stephen frears celebrates this great filmmaker beginning with a short biography of frears general observations on unifying themes and styles in his oeuvre and the characterization of his manner of directing by focusing on 10 key films lesley brill finds coherence in frears characteristic irony and in his concentration on many kinds of love in movies such as my beautiful laundrette dangerous liaisons high fidelity the queen philomena and many others frears portrays widely varied situations and characters with a combination of insight skepticism and sympathy he has the passionate unjudgmental focus of an artist who stands simultaneously at a distance from his subjects and within their worlds through frears work is widely admired brill argues that he has attracted little scholarly writing because of a combination of the diffidence of his self presentation and the difficulty of explicating the complex ideas and characters of his films

the ironic filmmaking of Stephen Frears is meant to inspire others to further examine his films individually and his career as a whole

The Ironic Filmmaking of Stephen Frears 2016-08-11 man sagt jeder zweite ire habe ein fertiges romanmanuskript in der schublade liegen und doch blieb im 20 jahrhundert vieles unerzählt moving beyond nativism untersucht den zusammenhang zwischen literarischem und gesellschaftlichem diskurs in irland zwischen 1890 und 1990 die studie zeigt wie nach der unabhangigkeit und james joyces ulysses von 1922 in beiden diskursen nur noch bestimmte wahrheiten kursieren konnten prozesse postkolonialer selbstfindung und kultureller abschottung fuhrten bis 1990 zu einer starken konventionalisierung in der erzahlliteratur seit 1990 lasst sich jedoch in der kulturellen debatte ein umbruch beobachten der sich auch in der erzahlliteratur und den werken von joseph o connor colm tobın roddy doyle robert mcliam wilson und vielen anderen autoren niederschlagt und vorangetrieben wird

Contours of a People 2012-12-04 goodbye yeats and o neill is a reading of one or two books recently written by the following major authors roddy doyle colm tobın john mcgahern william trevor seamus deane nuala o faolain patrick mccabe colum mccann nick laird gerry adams claire boylan frank mccourt tim o brien michael patrick macdonald alice mcdermott edward j delaney beth lordan william kennedy thomas kelly and mary gordon the study argues that farce has been a major mode of recent irish and irish american fiction and memoir a primary indicator of the state of both irish and irish american cultures in the early twenty first century

Moving beyond nativism 2002 this volume is a comprehensive collection of critical essays on the taming of the shrew and includes extensive discussions of the play's various printed versions and its theatrical productions aspinall has included only those essays that offer the most influential and controversial arguments surrounding the play the issues discussed include gender authority female autonomy and unruliness courtship and marriage language and speech and performance and theatricality

Goodbye Yeats and O'Neill 2010 the impulses that fired the southern literary renaissance echoed the impetus behind the irish literary revival at the turn of the twentieth century when ireland sought to demonstrate its cultural equality with any european nation and disentangle itself from english imposed stereotypes seeking to prove that the south was indeed the cultural equal of greater america despite the harsh realities of political defeat economic scarcity and racial strife southern writers embarked on a career to re imagine the american south and to re invent literary criticism transatlantic renaissances literature of ireland and the american south traces the influence of the irish revival upon the southern renaissance exploring how the latter looked to the former for guidance artistic innovation and models for self invention and regional renovation while deleuze and guattari's model for minor literature refers to minority or regional authors who work within a major language for purposes of subversion artuso modifies their term along generic and thematic lines to refer to errant female juveniles within subsidiary genres whose nonconformist development threatens to disrupt the dominant patriarchal culture of a region or nation using the themes of initiation and maturation to anchor the book artuso analyzes how the volatile development of young women in revivalist texts often reflects or questions larger growth pangs and patterns including the evolution of the literary revival itself and the development of a regional minority group that must work within a dominant culture language and nation while seeking methods of subversion with minor literature as the container for undervalued genres such as popular fiction and short stories often considered an author s juvenilia this work investigates not only how these texts challenge the authoritative claims of the novel but also scrutinizes the renaissance trope of female rebirth as the revivalists often figured cultural national or regional regeneration through the metamorphoses or maturation of female protagonists such as cathleen n houlihan scarlett o hara and virgie rainey drawing upon new historical new critical and postcolonial approaches artuso examines works by lady gregory margaret mitchell eudora welty elizabeth bowen jean toomer and james joyce

The New York Times Theatre Reviews 1999-2000 2001-12 this book also looks at how authors have persistently used the bildungsroman to complicate and challenge the idealization of the family exposing the divorce ban as symptomatic of an unrealistic notion of domestic inviolability this study concludes with a discussion of the future of the bildungsroman in a country that has transcended many of its formative crises this chapter considers doyle s a star called henry as a text that inaugurates a new phase in irish coming of age narratives in which many of the problems of irish life formerly treated so earnestly and tragically can be a source of play and humor by looking at a comprehensive range of novels by writers like sean

o faolain elizabeth bowen edna o brien and william trevor as well as lesser known figures like eimar o duffy francis macmanus and mary morrissy blighted beginnings traces the evolving concerns of irish writers as they pushed for a greater accommodation of individual freedoms and aspirations book jacket

Sequels 1967 the publication of the commitments the snapper and the van signaled the emergence of a significant new voice in irish fiction the significance lay not only in the description of a particular milieu and the social reality evoked but more particularly in the form of writing used to portray the lives of the fictional barrytown characters the book explores the dialectical relationship between the world of the barrytown characters as mediated through filmed and televised experiences and the translation of these experiences into the film medium in parker s and frears work the book will trace the genesis and impact of the change in ireland s fortunes on the work of doyle parker and frears and show how the increasing de differentiation of boundaries between economy and culture meant that a body of literary and cinematographic work like the trilogy was as much a contributory factor to the contemporary transformation of ireland as a reflection of it

Sequels: Adult books 1974 in this book each chapter explores significant irish texts in their literary cultural and historical contexts with an introduction that establishes the multiple critical contexts for irish cinema literature and their adaptive textual worlds the volume addresses some of the most popular and important late 20th century and 21st century works that have had an impact on the irish and global cinema and literary landscape a remarkable series of acclaimed and profitable domestic productions during the past three decades has accompanied while chronicling Ireland's struggle with self-identity, national consciousness and cultural expression such that the story of contemporary Irish cinema is in many ways the story of the young nation's growth pains and travails whereas Irish literature had long stood as the nation's foremost artistic achievement it is not too much to say that film now rivals literature as Ireland's key form of cultural expression the proliferation of successful screen versionings of Irish fiction and drama shows how intimately the contemporary Irish cinema is tied to the project of both understanding and complicating even denying a national identity that has undergone radical change during the past three decades this present volume is the first to present a collective accounting of that productive synergy which has seen so much of contemporary Irish literature transferred to the screen

Transatlantic Renaissances 2013 this book examines the commitments Parker 1991 for the first time as a film rather than an adaptation of Roddy Doyle's bestselling novel and as a significant cultural event in 1990s Ireland a major hit in Ireland and around the world the film depicts the short-lived attempts of an ensemble of young working class Dubliners to achieve success as a soul covers band playing the hits of Aretha Franklin Otis Redding and others on a mission to bring soul back to Dublin drawing upon interviews with key figures involved in the film and its music including Roddy Doyle Angelina Ball and Bronagh Gallagher as well as archival research of director Alan Parker's papers the book explores questions of authenticity associated with youth music class and culture and assesses the film's legacy for the Irish film industry irish music scenes and irish youth it also examines the film s status as a truly transnational production this concise yet interdisciplinary case study will be of interest to students and researchers in popular music cultural studies and sociology as well as film and media studies

"Blighted Beginnings" 2010 exploring writing of working class dublin after seán o casey this book breaks new ground in irish studies unearthing submerged narratives of class in irish life examining how working class identity is depicted by authors like brendan behan and roddy doyle it discusses how this hidden urban ireland has appeared in the country s literature

The Barrytown Trilogy 2006 in this dynamic collection a team of experts map the development of live art culturally thematically and historically supported with examples from around the world the text engages with a number of key practices asking what these practices do and how they can be contextualised and understood

Screening Contemporary Irish Fiction and Drama 2022-09-16 haunted histories and troubled pasts speaks to how a transnational array of recent screen entertainments participate through horror in public discourses of history the social and creative work of reshaping popular understanding of our world through the lens of the past contemporary film and television and popular screen cultures more generally are distinguished by their many and varied engagements with history including participation in worldwide movements to reconcile past losses and injuries with present legacies the chapters in this collection address themselves to 21st century screen horror's participation in this widespread fascination with and concern for the historical its recurrent reimagining of the relation between the past and present which is part of its inheritance from the gothic they are concerned with the historical work of horror's spectral occupations its visceral threats of violence and its capacity for exploring repressed social identities as well as the ruptures and impositions of colonization and nationhood trauma is a key theme in this book examined through themes of war and genocide ghostly invasions institutionalized abuse apocalyptic threat and environmental destruction these persistent fearful reimaginings of the past can take many lurid sometimes tritely generic forms together these chapters explore and reflect upon horror's ability to speak through them to the unspoken of history to push the boundaries and probe the fault lines and ideological impositions of received historical narratives while reminding us that history and the historical imagination persist as sites of contention
