description and other notations every cover of each first edition book reproduced in color johann von staupitz is generally acknowledged as one of the most important influences on martin luther convincing him of the sin remitting grace of god it was this revelation that was to spur luther to formulate his theology of salvation by faith alone which was to lead to his break with the catholic church when luther was brought to task by the church authorities for his heretical views it was staupitz who was deputed to remonstrate with him and it was staupitz who sent a copy of his theses on indulgences to the pope despite luther s defection from rome he was to remain on good terms with the orthodox staupitz who was consistently at the forefront of reformation within the catholic church this book sheds light on the spiritual and theological beliefs of staupitz placing him in the midst of the late medieval reform efforts in the augustianian order it argues that as reformer sermonizer and friend of humanists staupitz was a major player in the world of early sixteenth century theology who had a profound influence on the course of the reformation inspired by true events dakota and author of fingers in the sparkle jar finding herself in a new home in brighton kate bradbury sets about transforming her decked barren backyard into a beautiful wildlife garden she documents the unbuttoning of the earth and the rebirth of the garden the rewilding of a tiny urban space on her own she unscrews saws and hammers the decking away she clears the builders rubble and rubbish beneath it and she digs and enriches the soil gradually planting it up with plants she knows will attract wildlife she erects bird boxes and bee hotels hangs feeders and grows nectar and pollen rich plants and slowly brings life back to the garden but while she s doing this kate s neighbours continue to pave and deck their gardens locking them away the wildlife she tries to save is further threatened and she feels she's fighting an uphill battle is there any point in gardening for wildlife when everyone else is drowning the land in poison and cement sadly events take kate away from her garden and she finds herself back home in birmingham where she grew up travelling the roads she used to race down on her bike in the eighties thinking of the gardens and wildlife she loved witnessing more land lost beneath paving stones if the dead could return what would they say about the land we have taken the ancient routes we have carved up the wildlife we have lost do you believe in fate that powerful but
