2024-03-26: Definition: research paper is a written document that presents the author's original research analysis and interpretation of a specific topic or issue. It is typically based on empirical evidence and may involve qualitative or quantitative research methods or a combination of both.

apa sample paper note: this page reflects the latest version of the apa publication manual, i.e. apa 7, which released in October 2019. The equivalent resource for the older apa 6 style can be found here. Cite your source automatically in apa using citation machines responsibly powered by [redacted]. There are many ways to generate an idea for a research paper: from brainstorming with pen and paper to talking it through with a fellow student or professor; you can try free writing, which involves taking a broad topic and writing continuously for two or three minutes to identify absolutely anything relevant that could be interesting.

2022-11-19: The formatting of a research paper is different depending on which style guide you're following. In addition to citations, apa, mla, and chicago provide format guidelines for things like font choices, page layout, format of headings, and the format of the reference page. Scribbr offers free Microsoft Word templates for the most common styles.

2022-09-24: The introduction to a research paper is where you set up your topic and approach for the reader. It has several key goals: present your topic and get the reader interested; provide background or summarize existing research; position your own approach; detail your specific research problem and problem statement.
