this work offers a detailed reconstruction of the campaigns for and trials resulting in the beatification in 1626 and subsequent canonization in 1169 of the florentine mystic nun maria maddalena de pazzi 1566 1607 clare copeland places her findings in the wide context of the politics of saint making at a time of particular significance for the history of roman catholic canonization the protestant reformation had put the roman catholic church on the defensive in this area of devotional practice and the period covered in this volume ca 1600 1669 saw far reaching reforms in the ways in which sanctity was measured and adjudicated by rome copeland shows how these developments need to be seen less in terms of a top down attempt by the central organs of ecclesiastical control to impose a hegemony of holiness and more in terms of negotiation over the meanings of sanctity and how it relates to canonization between the various stakeholders anticlassicisms as a plural react to the many possible forms of classicisms in the sixteenth century classicist tendencies range from humanist traditions focusing on horace and the teachings of rhetoric via pietrò bembo s canonization of a second antiquity in the works of the fourteenth century classics petrarch and boccaccio to the aristotelianism of the second half of the century correspondingly the various tendencies to destabilize or to subvert or contradict these manifold and historically dynamic classicisms need to be distinguished as so many anticlassicisms this volume after discussing the history and possible implications of the label anticlassicism in renaissance studies differentiates and analyzes these anticlassicisms it distinguishes the various forms of opposition to classicisms as to their scope on a scale between radical poetological dissension to merely sectorial opposition in a given literary genre and to their alternative models be they authors like dante or texts at the same time the various chapters specify the degree of difference or erosion inherent in anticlassicist tendencies with respect to their classicist counterparts ranging from implicit system disturbances to open intended antagonism as in bernese poetry with a view to establishing an overall picture of this field of phenomena for the first time
