abstract this gpo report examines the food stamp program operations in an attempt to answer two questions are all people in the program s target group aware of their potential eligibility for food stamp benefits and is the program benefitting only those who are genuinely eligible abstract the food stamp program provides unrestricted income supplementation but does not have a substantial impact on family nutritional intake the study advances the practical understanding of the food stamp program versus cash tranfers through discussions of the history of the program how the program works and participation in the program the food stamp program is viewed in light of total income maintenance the monograph discusses alternative programs of providing stamps free of charge or replacing them with cash the supplemental nutrition assistance program snap formerly called the food stamp program is designed primarily to increase the food purchasing power of eligible low income households to help them buy a nutritionally adequate low cost diet this report describes the rules related to eligibility for snap benefits as well as the rules for benefits and their redemption snap is administered by the u s department of agriculture s food and nutrition service usda fns snap is authorized by the food and nutrition act of 2008 this law formerly the food stamp act of 1977 has since 1973 been reauthorized by the farm bill omnibus legislation that also typically includes the authorization of other federal agricultural policies and programs the program was most recently reauthorized by the 2014 farm bill p l 113 79 enacted february 7 2014 snap eligibility and benefits are calculated on a household basis eligibility is determined through a traditional or a categorical eligibility path under traditional eligibility applicant households must meet gross income net income and asset tests specifically household gross monthly income all income as defined by snap law must be at or below 130 of the federal poverty level and household net snap specified deductions are subtracted monthly income must be at 100 of the federal poverty level the traditional asset rules are set at 2 000 per household inflation adjusted households that contain an elderly or disabled member have a higher asset limit and also do not have to meet the gross income test under categorical eligibility snap eligibility is automatically conveyed based upon the applicant s participation in other means tested programs namely supplemental security income ssi temporary assistance for needy families tanf or general assistance ga because tanf is a broad purpose block grant the state option to extend snap eligibility to applicants that receive a tanf funded benefit allows states to offer program eligibility under rules that vary from those discussed in this paragraph including an elimination of the asset test if eligible for snap an applicant household also undergoes a calculation of its monthly benefit amount or allotment this calculation utilizes the household s net income as well as the maximum allotment a figure that equals the current value of the thrifty food plan tfp the american recovery and reinvestment act had temporarily increased this value this increase ended after october 31 2013 benefits are issued on an ebt card which operates with a declining balance like a debit card benefits are not cash may not be accessed at an automatic teller machine and are redeemable only for foods benefits may be redeemed for foods at licensed retailers which may include a wide variety of retailers so long as retailers meet licensing requirements without the food stamp program the poverty gap in jamaica would have been much worse during the early 1990s when the jamaican dollar was being devalued households with elderly members and young children benefited most from the program each year the u s department of agriculture usda must estimate the number of people who are eligible to participate in the special supplemental nutrition program for women infants and children wic these usda estimates have come under critical scrutiny in part because the number of infants and postpartum women who have actually enrolled in the program has exceeded the number estimated to be eligible by as much as 20 to 30 percent these high coverage rates have led some members of congress to conclude that some people who participate are truly ineligible and that funding could be reduced somewhat and still meet the needs of truly eligible persons who wish to participate but some advocates and state wic agencies believe that the estimates of the number of eligible persons are too low and more people who are eligible and want to participate could do so in response to these concerns the food and nutrition service fns of the usda asked the committee on national statistics of the national research council to convene a panel of experts to review the methods used to estimate the number of people nationwide who are eligible and likely to participate in the wic program the panel s charge is to review currently used and alternative data and methods for estimating income
