holding the gun filled with sinful desires and the misfired hunting rifle will ultimately slay that desire laden soul the moment the barrel turns it becomes the gateway to the soul's rebirth the truths and verities of this world are immortal if the truth cannot be exposed if there is no resistance the oppressors will place heavier and greater chains upon people the seeds of a lie will only give rise to more lies never yielding the fruits of benevolent truth the lies did not disappear with the death of Dr. Li Wenliang but rather grew larger like a snowball rolling because people did not resist because there was no justice and the truth remained undisclosed truth is singular and only by finding that singular truth can one awaken to a purposeful life anyone willing to servilely submit to all forms of authority once such a person obtains power will undoubtedly subject those under their control to even greater enslavement all the human catastrophes we have experienced should warn future generations never to repeat or replicate the disasters and evils human nature often involuntarily surrenders to power and wickedness thus comfortably becoming a servant submissive to evil those with free will must endure struggles and battles against this world enduring soul purgatory like pain to liberate their souls from the shackles of evil if people fear evil and dare not be upright they only deserve the worst world and the worst life a person devoid of compassion and belief in the existence of hell will undoubtedly turn this world into hell everyone is a lamp and if not ignited merely scrap metal only fulfilling one's mission can ignite the light of life the tathagata god long ago predetermined all of humanity's scripts and understanding the script's purpose is the meaning of one's existence within the play
