on a sunny fall day in 1983 patricia van tighem and her husband trevor jang were brutally attacked by a bear while hiking in the canadian rockies jang was severely hurt but van tighem suffered even more serious disfiguring injuries and that she survived was a miracle a gifted writer van tighem crafted a vivid and startling account of the attack but her recovery was just as disturbing her numerous reconstructive surgeries were painful her facial disfigurement including the loss of an eye isolated her and the nightmares that haunted her carried their own psychological burden the bear s embrace garnered much praise when it was first published in 2000 with honesty and eloquence the book tells of the unpredictability of life of bravery terror rage and love of what it means to look and feel different in a culture that values perfection deeply moving and often astonishing the bear s embrace is an inspiring story of human perseverance and self knowledge tragically van tighem could no longer live with her pain and ended her life in 2005 in this new edition her sister margaret van tighem writes an affecting afterword remembering patricia and her indomitable spirit and strength
