when i was a young baby boomer growing up in los angeles and inglewood california i felt the maverick in me my favorite tv shows were the westerns of the 1950s and 1960s i always admired the cowboys and gunslingers for their strong character and courage like them i also was unconventional and independent and did not think or behave in the same way as my peers or others occasionally i was rebellious and did not take orders readily as i grew and became a man i always felt confident in myself as a leader and i rarely regarded others especially my peers as being my even change or equivalent however to become a real man i needed leadership where i was weakest so i often sought from adult men righteousness truthfulness boldness faithfulness loyalty and authenticity i needed a man with good strong character who told the truth and spoke to me in a language that i understood not to discourage me or criticize me unfairly but to elicit from me my best traits honestly i needed another maverick christian to lead me away from destruction and into life perhaps you feel the maverick in you whether life is currently good bad or ugly i invite you to experience my christian journey of aligning with the ultimate high priest for all mavericks pray to god right now and ask jesus to be your savior he is able to inspire the wildest of us siblings play an integral and essential part in our psychic development traditionally in psychoanalytic thinking sibling relationships are regarded as secondary in developmental importance to the relationships with the parents the authors in this book challenge this view and explore the impact of sibling relationships on internal psychic structures family and social relationships they suggest that siblings play a primary part in psychic development even for an only child and that infants are born with an expectation of siblings an innate pre conception similar to those relating to the breast and parental couple through infant observations and psychoanalytic treatment the authors in this book examine sibling relationships from the most profoundly close as in conjoined twins through other twin and sibling relationships and deliberate on the wider context of social and tribal brotherhood and sisterhood
