the fascinating companion title to the award winning historical novel blood on the river james town 1607 after the colony of james town is founded in 1607 after captain john smith establishes trade with the native americans after pocahontas befriends the colonists after early settlers both thrive and die in this new world a girl is born virginia virginia laydon an infant at the end of blood on the river has now grown up in a colony that is teetering dangerously on the precipice of conflict with the native algonquins virginia has the gift or the curse of the knowing an ability that could help save the colony and is equally likely to land her at the burning stake as an accused witch virginia struggles to make sense of her own inner world against the backdrop of pivotal years in the jamestown colony the first representative government is established the first enslaved africans arrive and the self righteousness of the colony s leaders angers the algonquin when virginia s mother first learns of her gift she is terrified kill it her mother says or they will kill you when accusations and danger threaten virginia learns that she is on her own her mother must protect her young sisters rather than stand up for her so begins a journey of self realization and increasing strength as virginia goes from being a self protective young girl to someone who knows she must live her own truth even if it will be the end of her

A Flutter in the Colony 2019

in 1956 the senguptas travel from calcutta to rural malaya to start afresh in their new hamlet of anonymity the couple gradually forget past troubles and form new ties but this second home is not entirely free and gentle a complex racially charged society it is on the brink of independence even as communist insurgents hover on the periphery how much should a newcomer meddle before it starts to destroy him shuttling in time and temper between the rubber plantations of malaya and the anguish filled years of pre partition bengal between the malayan emergency and direct action day between indifference and lust a flutter in the colony is a tender resonant chronicle of a family struggling to remain together in the twilight of empire in asia

White Servitude in the Colony of Virginia 1895

for over a century the mystery of the new hope island vanishing has intrigued and tantalized how did a community of 150 souls disappear and leave no trace behind as abruptly as the crew of the mary celeste they went missing from their lonely island in the hebrides without a single clue as to the nature of their departure doomed to remain an enigma forever until media magnate alexander mcintyre decides to harness his prodigious energy and bottomless wealth in solving the new hope mystery once and for all he gathers a crack team of experts sparing no expense in his pursuit of answers what they discover is as terrifying as it is inexplicable are some mysteries safer left unsolved f g cottam is the author of five previous novels of paranormal terror including times book club choice and children of the night award winner the house of lost souls the colony is his new chilling masterpiece
