when steve sieberson and his wife unexpectedly found themselves in britain with an entire summer on their hands they readily agreed to avoid the usual tourist attractions opting instead for a road trip to the uk s far flung national parks as they set out however he envisioned bracing days of energetic hillwalking while she assumed they would relax in tearooms and cozy pubs seldom planning more than a few days in advance the two traversed the country in a rented vauxhall subjecting themselves to single track lanes diabolical signage and whimsical advice from locals they discovered a town called mirthless a place where cats eyes are removed and a vibrating cottage while at mealtimes they dove fearlessly into black pudding eton mess and barely recognizable enchiladas meanwhile after their initial attempts at hiking together nearly ended in disaster sieberson received dispensation to scramble alone to the highest point in each national park as long as he was quick about it and left plenty of time for more sedentary pursuits low mountains or high tea dishes up the charms and eccentricities of rural great britain as seen through the eyes of two americans who never really knew what was coming next neither side was prepared for the conflict as evidenced by their respective fortifications the most sophisticated and modern fortifications were those built by the us corps of engineers to protect some of the main port cities these included fort mifflin in philadelphia fort mchenry in baltimore and castle william in new york the british also heavily fortified their main harbor at halifax and their main center of power at quebec however elsewhere especially in the interior fortifications were old neglected or only hastily erected the forts at detroit and mackinac were much as the british had left them in 1796 this book covers all of the main fortifications of the conflict those that faced the crashing of guns and those whose intimidation played a part in the grand strategy of the war what if you discovered that the whole concept of a gender binary is an illusion while many people identify as men or women that is not all there is the idea that all humans fall into one of two gender categories is largely a construct created by those who benefit from that belief the reality is that gender is naturally diverse falling inside and outside of those boxes and more expansive ideas of gender have always existed in the second book of the queer history project the gender binary is a big lie infinite identities around the world author lee wind uses historical evidence and primary sources poetry ancient burial sites firsthand accounts and news stories to explore gender roles and identities gender identities and physical bodies are as diverse as the human experience get ready to shatter those preconceived notions of nothing but a gender binary and dive deep into expressions of gender both past and present that reveal the infinite variety and beauty of everyone s gender
