it s hard to see how anyone is ever going to better this user s manual to the life of georges perec gilbert adair sunday times winner of the prix goncourt for biography 1994 george perec 1936 82 was one of the most significant european writers of the twentieth century and undoubtedly the most versatile and innovative writer of his generation david bellos's comprehensive biography which also provides the first full survey of percy's irreverent polymathic oeuvre explores the life of an anguished comical and endearingly modest man who worked quietly as an archivist in a medical research library the french son of jewish immigrants from poland he remained haunted all of his life by his father's death in the war fighting to defend france and his mother's in auschwitz birkenau his acclaimed novel a void 1969 written without using the letter e has been seen as an attempt to escape from the words père mere and even george percy his career made an auspicious start with things a story of the sixties 1965 which won the prix renaudot he then pursued an idiosyncratic and ambitious literary itinerary through the intellectual ferment of paris in the 1960s and 1970s he belonged to the ouvrier de littérature potentielle oulipo a radically inventive group of writers whose members included raymond queneau and italo calvino percy achieved international celebrity with life a user's manual 1978 which won the prix medicis and was voted novel of the decade by the salon du livre he died in his mid forties after a short illness leaving a truly puzzling detective novel 53 days incomplete professor bellos's book enables us at once to relish the most wilfully bizarre aspects of percy's oeuvre and to understand the

andré malraux s output spanning some 55 years ranges from novels to philosophical essays studies on the plastic arts and memorialist essays the present volume is significantly innovative in that it sets out to elucidate this diversity by focusing for the first time and from a variety of perspectives on the erosion of boundaries which characterises malraux s work this erosion is multi faceted and includes the crossing of genre boundaries the appropriation of the literary text as political vehicle the exploitation of the literary text as historical document contemporary history as a source of literary texts the slippage between autobiography and the novel autobiography and the memorialist essay and between fiction and the memorialist essay contributors to this volume explore the complex relationship between fact and fiction underpinning malraux s writing and also his life an understanding of malraux s determination to ignore boundaries is crucial to the understanding of his life and work in this respect the present study will interest academics and students both undergraduate and postgraduate of french literary and cultural studies
