342 Little Eyolf by Henrik Ibsen) 2021-12-31

little eyolf was written in christiania during 1894 and published in copenhagen on december 11 in that year by this time ibsen s correspondence has become so scanty as to afford us no clue to what may be called the biographical antecedents of the play even of anecdotic history very little attaches to it for only one of the characters has a definite model been suggested ibsen himself told his french translator count prozor that the original of the rat wife was a little old woman who came to kill rats at the school where he was educated she carried a little dog in a bag and it was said that children had been drowned through following her this means that ibsen did not himself adapt to his uses the legend so familiar to us in browning s pied piper of hamelin but found it ready adapted by the popular imagination of his native place skien puppets dancing to it the germ in his mind was dramatic not ethical it was only as the drama developed that its meanings dawned upon him and he left them implicit and fragmentary like the symbolism of life itself seldom formulated never worked out with schematic precision he simply took a cutting from the tree of life and planting it in the rich soil of his imagination let it ramify and burgeon as it would
