a fascinating chronicle of the 55 billion a year global denim industry david futrelle los angeles times rachel louise snyder reports from the far reaches of the multi billion dollar denim industry in search of the people who make your clothes from a cotton picker in azerbaijan to a cambodian seamstress a denim maker in italy to a fashion designer in new york snyder captures the human environmental and political forces at work in a complex and often absurd world neither polemic nor prescription fugitive denim captures what it means to work in the twenty first century

Wild New World: The Epic Story of Animals and People in America 2022-10-25

one of kirkus review s best nonfiction books of 2022 a deep time history of animals and humans in north america by the best selling and award winning author of coyote america in 1908 near folsom new mexico a cowboy discovered the remains of a herd of extinct giant bison by examining flint points embedded in the bones archeologists later determined that a band of humans had killed and butchered the animals 12 450 years ago this discovery vastly expanded america s known human history but also revealed the long standing danger homo sapiens presented to the continent s evolutionary richness distinguished author dan flores s ambitious history chronicles the epoch in which humans and animals have coexisted in the wild new world of north america a place shaped both by its own grand evolutionary forces and by momentous arrivals from asia africa and europe with portraits of iconic creatures such as mammoths horses wolves and bison flores describes the evolution and historical ecology of north america like never before the arrival of humans precipitated an extraordinary disruption of this teeming environment flores treats humans not as a species apart but as a new animal entering two continents that had never seen our likes before he shows how our long past as carnivorous hunters helped us settle america initially establishing a coast to coast culture that lasted longer than the present united states but humanity s success had devastating consequences for other creatures in telling this epic story flores traces the origins of today s sixth extinction to the spread of humans around the world tracks the story of a hundred centuries of native america explains how old world ideologies precipitated 400 years of market driven slaughter that devastated so many ancient american species and explores the decline and miraculous recovery of species in recent decades in thrilling narrative style informed by genomic science evolutionary biology and environmental history flores celebrates the astonishing bestiary that arose on our continent and introduces the complex human cultures and individuals who hastened its eradication studied america s animals and moved heaven and earth to rescue them eons in scope and continental in scale wild new world is a sweeping yet intimate big history of the animal human story in america

The Story of the Origins of the Bura/Pabir People of Northeast Nigeria 2014

a synopsis of the bura project the three major rationale for writing this book are primarily to through the study of african language family groups trace the origin of the tribe to a more specific location rather than the diffused response of from the east secondly to investigate why and how the word pabir babur came on the scene referring to a separate ethnic group different or the same as the bura and thirdly to document some of the vanishing bura cultural practices and deeds for example what their beliefs are their marriage practices local industries and what they do to pass time it is my strong belief that the first objective is accomplished through our analysis and presentation of the proto afro asiatic linguistic family classification group and its subgroup the proto chadic of which the biu mandara forms a sub branch through a systemic and vigorous study of the classification of the different languages comprising this proto family of languages and its sub branches we are able to assert that the bura people were among many other ethnic groups part of a group whose origin can be traced to the levant region of south west asia and the middle east they belong to the group that forms back to africa migration this is because modern genetic studies of languages indicate that they re the only group that have traces of y chromosome belonging to haplogroup r1b r v88 in africa but found mainly in asia and europe after tracing the influences of the powerful kanem ca 700 1376 and later bornu kanem 1380 1893 empires around the lake chad region as well as the kingdom of mandara founded in about 1459 i e end of the 15th century in what is today modern cameroon on the inhabitants of the region we conclude a chaotic period of migrations and wars including trade in slaves it is through this prism that we notice the emergence of the founder of the woviri dynasty of biu through his failure to win the maiship of bornu he moved to mandara and then the plateau of biu with some of his followers or relatives being a student of history abduhahi or who later became yamta ra wala attempted to replicate what the kanembu were able to do among the local people they conquered some centuries earlier they created an ethnicity and language called kanuri yamta ra wala succeeded somewhat but wasn t able to completely conquer the bura people and turn them in his new ethnic vision instead the buras went to the hills to fight him the next day the new breed he created he called pabir or babur as the hausa would call them the myth of who yamta ra wala is has for the present eclipsed historians and would probably continue for some time to come as for the bura most have down the hill tops and mountains and the pabir they have never been closer than today today for all practical purposes they are one and the same ethnic group they ve intermingled more than any two previously separated groups their vocabulary phonology and cultural practices have fused into one in most instances

Poetic Stories About the People of the Sun and of the Soul 2011-05-04

in the army i often wrote letters for my fellow comrades for a price they would tell me the story and i would put them in words it was a good hustle for me to make a little extra money i would write poems for their ladies or wives for special occasions you know i liked doing it but i never did make copies to keep for myself now the education system was a very pleasant experience until about the sixth grade for me when i learned that black people were slaves to white people in our social studies classes that was a defining moment for my educational experience because of the way it was taught it really threw me for a loop as i went home crying to my mother but she explained to me that the truth if you will seek you will find and that will make you free but from then on i lost some faith in the american education system as i learned later in life it was all based upon the theory of white supremacy for the facts that lead to truth were purposely left out of the mix to deprive black people of their righteous place in history and robbed white people of their truth in history the school system was one of the two major vehicles by which the white people claimed themselves as superior and the black people as inferior the other was religion and together as a double edge sword they still continue to put enmity between the different peoples and cultures of the world i did not give up on my learning experience and started to read other materials such as magazines comics and biographies of great men of color especially sports figures but the number one thing that i used to learn how to read better was the sports page of the l a times i would read that section from front page to back page every morning before school but in school poetry was my most favored reading i liked the rythming of words as well as the message i think it was related to another love of mine as a child and that was music and dancing it didn t take long for me memorize the lyrics of a song as we danced along singing aloud as if we were endowed with a gift from heaven above with that special kind of love that was the ultimate fun as a young man growing up to meet the girls to write little poems to your girlfriends was what i liked most the poetry of greeting cards was my cup of tea after my education experience on our family festivities and celebrations i would add my own poems to the cards on these occasions the family and friends always seemed to like them so very much always complimenting and encouraging me to write more but i did not pursue poetry much as i continued my quest for facts in pursuit of truth when my marriage ended in divorce in the early 1980s it was music and poetry that brought joy and peace within that s when my writing of poetry increased and my perspective about other things expanded as a single man again it was very interesting living the single life now i have been married for 18 years living the family life called the american dream with grand children and all the wrappings and trappings that go with it but i don t mind one little bit because most of us should be graceful for the material life this land has produced despite its inequities for the horizon does not look as favorable for our future generations that must cope with the mess we have left for them in the physical mental and spiritual planes of life
