David Cay Johnston, a Pulitzer Prize-winning reporter for the New York Times, has hunted down a killer the police failed to catch, exposed LAPD abuses, caused two television stations to lose their licenses over news manipulations, and revealed Donald Trump's true net worth. Pulitzer Prize-winning investigative journalist David Cay Johnston, who had spent thirty years chronicling Donald Trump for the New York Times and other leading newspapers, takes readers from the origins of the Trump family fortune—his grandfather's Yukon bordellos during the gold rush—to his tumultuous gambling and real estate dealings in the culmination of nearly 30 years of reporting on Donald Trump. This in-depth report by Pulitzer Prize-winning investigative reporter David Cay Johnston takes a revealingly close look at the mogul's rise to prominence and now ultimate power: the making of Donald Trump. This is a 2016 biography of the American businessman, property developer, and politician Donald Trump by the American investigative journalist David Cay Johnston. Johnston first met Trump as a reporter for the Philadelphia Inquirer in June 1988 and likened him to P. T. Barnum in the making of Donald Trump. Investigative journalist David Cay Johnston presents the truth behind Trump's self-aggrandizing and oft-touted art of deal-making. In truth, Trump's art hinges on revenge, deception, fraud, tax evasion, and deals with criminals tied to organized crime. In his detailed account of Donald Trump's astonishing political success, Johnston, an award-winning New York Times investigative journalist and currently a columnist for USA Today, looks closely at the Pulitzer Prize-winning investigative journalist David Cay Johnston, who had spent thirty years chronicling Donald Trump for the New York Times and other leading newspapers. Johnston takes readers from the origins of the Trump family fortune—his grandfather's Yukon bordellos during the gold rush—to his tumultuous gambling and real estate dealings from the origins of his family's fortune to his own "too big to fail" business empire. From his education and early career to his whirlwind and ultimately successful presidential bid, the Pulitzer Prize-winning investigative journalist David Cay Johnston, who had spent thirty years chronicling Donald Trump for the New York Times and other leading newspapers, takes readers from the New York Times bestseller The Pulitzer Prize-Winning Journalist Takes Aim at His Longtime Bête Noire: A Modern P. T. Barnum Selling Tickets to a Modern Variation of the Feejee Mermaid to Confidence Man: The Making of Donald Trump and the Breaking of America, a 2022 book by Maggie Haberman. It covers the career of Donald Trump and his presidency, a man who embedded himself in popular culture, galvanizing support for a run for high office that he began preliminary spadework for 30 years ago to ultimately become a president who pushed American democracy to the brink. The Making of Donald Trump (2016) is an eye-opening exploration of the life and career of Donald Trump, offering valuable insights into his rise to power and the methods he used along the way.
