this book suggests that religion in its usual sense can be replaced by something better that the human spirit or subjectivity can be the subject of scientific study and that lack of purpose or design in the universe is not a handicap but a positive opportunity for intelligent beings to make of the universe and its contents what they reasonably can the book breaks new ground in suggesting a radical alternative to religion it offers a scientific and humanist alternative to religion which appeals to people s critical faculties rather than emotions or intuitions it also challenges current views of causation and the principle of sufficient reason by stressing the subjectivity of our reasoning powers and clarifying these in relation to an independent external reality it develops and elaborates a notion of the noosphere within a theoretical system this enables the notion to assume a scientific importance which it currently lacks because it is treated as an isolated eccentric and rather mystical idea throughout the world healthcare professionals often lack knowledge of the possibilities and limitations of systematically processing data information and knowledge and of the resulting impact on quality decision making they are often asked to use information technologies of which they have limited appreciation in order to enhance their practices through better use of information resources however for systematically processing data information and knowledge in medicine and in healthcare healthcare professionals who are well trained in medical informatics or health informatics are needed it will only be through improved education of healthcare professionals and through an increase in the number of well trained workers in health and medical informatics that this lack of knowledge and associated skills can begin to be reversed although we can recognize further progress in educating health and a considerable number of educational programs for health informatics medical informatics specialists have been set up there is still a need to enhance these educational activities world wide considering global developments as well as new curricular concepts and technological opportunities imia and in particular its working group on health and medical informatics education is the leading international society stimulating such educational activities in various ways this book is especially helpful for educators in the field of health medical informatics
