The Kia Ceed is a compact car produced by the South Korean manufacturer Kia since 2006 exclusively for the European market. It is the first Kia vehicle to be designed entirely in Europe and tailored to European customers. The Ceed is staunchly traditional for now, one flavour of petrol engine, two gearboxes, and two trim levels. It's like motoring fast food: simple, easy to order, and broadly satisfying. What's more, with this third-generation Ceed, Kia rolls its Volkswagen Golf-rivalling hatchback onto a new model platform in a bid to make a more telling dent in the regional segment. Dominance of its class is no longer a distant prospect. Read the definitive Kia Ceed 2024 review from the expert what car team. Check specs, prices, performance, and compare with similar cars. The third-generation Kia Ceed, yes, it's sans apostrophe these days, competes in the family car sector against the likes of the Ford Focus and Skoda Octavia. It matches the vast majority of its rivals. Top Gear reviews the Kia Ceed with its fresh new styling and better quality cabin. Can this compete with class leaders like the Golf? Find out inside. The Kia Ceed five-door hatchback, Ceed Sportswagon, estate, and Proceed Shooting Brake versions will each reveal an entirely redesigned front end, sporty updates to the rear, restyled alloys, and refreshed body colours and interior. The third-generation Kia Ceed drops the apostrophe and adds some class with a 7-year warranty, still standard. It's a cut above the mainstream.
