it seems to be certain says the abbé mcgeoghehan that ireland continued uninhabited from the creation to the deluge with this assurance to help us on our onward way i may venture to supplement it by saying that little is known about the first or even about the second third and fourth succession of settlers in ireland at what precise period what is known as the scoto celtic branch of the great aryan stock broke away from its parent tree by what route its migrants travelled in what degree of consanguinity it stood to the equally celtic race or races of britain what sort of people inhabited ireland previous to the first aryan invasion all this is in the last degree uncertain
