born in union county georgia in 1917 and authored four volumes of poems and two novels during his short lifetime until now many of his poems originally published in the 1940s and 1950s have been out of print reece who faithfully assumed responsibility for his family s farm when his parents became ill was never a poet of the academic ivory tower indeed he rebelled against the rising new criticism associated with the vanderbilt fugitives the elite of southern poetry at that time reece s work reflects both the devastating impact of his parents death from tuberculosis and his own affliction with the disease which caused him to distance himself from others a solitary thing am i upon the roads of rust and flame that thin at sunset to the air reece was also preoccupied with his ambivalence toward the farm which sustained his solitude yet took time away from his writing in the far dark woods go roving and find there to match your mood a kindred spirit moving where the wild winds blow in the wood reece s poetry is resonant and contemplative and jim clark has included here works that speak for the true grace of reece s talent in addition clark s attentive introduction should bring poetry is resonant and contemplative and jim clark has included here works that speak for the true grace of reece s talent in addition clark s attentive introduction should bring increased interest to this notable southern poet musicality of gezelle swest flemish idiom two of the translations included go some way to redressing the balance thewatter scriever by scotland s national poet edwin morgan and a little leaf by francis jones both translators make brilliant use of their own vernaculars glaswegian and north yorkshire respectively to bring gezelleto life for the non dutch speaking reader
