text models structuring whole texts writing texts for particular purposes editing texts teachers who attempt to enhance the reading and writing skills of their students face one of the most difficult tasks in education not only are reading and writing two of the most difficult processes to teach and reinforce but they are two of the most important after working with literally thousands of teachers to improve their effectiveness at enhancing these key literacy skills and after surveying the research we have come to some conclusions about how reading and writing can be taught and reinforced we present what we have learned in this book psycinfo database record c 2004 apa all rights reserved help my students can t write why you need a writing revolution in your classroom and how to lead it the writing revolution twr provides a clear method of instruction that you can use no matter what subject or grade level you teach the model also known as the hochman method has demonstrated over and over that it can turn weak writers into strong communicators by focusing on specific techniques that match their needs and by providing them with targeted feedback insurmountable as the challenges faced by many students may seem twr can make a dramatic difference and the method does more than improve writing skills it also helps boost reading comprehension improve organizational and study skills enhance speaking abilities develop analytical capabilities twr is as much a method of teaching content as it is a method of teaching writing there s no separate writing block and no separate writing curriculum instead teachers of all subjects adapt the twr strategies and activities to their current curriculum and weave them into their content instruction but perhaps what s most revolutionary about the twr method is that it takes the mystery out of learning to write well it breaks the writing process down into manageable chunks and then has students practice the chunks they need repeatedly while also learning content effective learning and teaching of writing is a handbook on research on the effective teaching and learning of writing it is a reference for researchers and educators in the domain of written composition in education effective learning and teaching of writing covers all age ranges and school settings and it deals with various aspects of writing and text types research methodology varies from experimental studies to reflective classroom practitioners research this new volume in the series studies in writing brings together researchers from all kinds of disciplines involved in writing research and countries in their endeavour to improve the teaching of written composition it is the result of co operation of researchers all over the world and shows
