in mark 9 a father whose son was tormented by a demon came to jesus for healing the words of the father sounds familiarly inconsistent i believe help my unbelief we must admire his transparency which resonates with us he wanted more than anything for his son to be healed only this itinerant teacher could heal him from the threat of injury and possibly death when he went to the disciples first and they couldn t heal his boy then his faith was shaken the inconsistency in his words describes a common reality we share as human beings believing and having unbelief at the same time sounds like a contradiction the objective is to know all people have beliefs and doubts it is obvious at home in school at work everywhere sometimes christians need to hear one can believe and be given permission to have doubts in matters of faith long established interpretations and organizational structures may be necessary but are not to displace the reality of god s love grace and truth shown in the crucifixion and resurrection of christ i believe help my unbelief unbelief is an attempt to give the reader permission to find positive joy and love for god and demonstrated in our love for each other it is not necessary to be examples to the world as keepers of truth but rather embracing love for all people just as god has loved us this is one thing all christians can agree upon to love all people as god has loved us have you ever wondered how god sees us many questions exist today that did not exist in jesus time how are we to know what god s opinion is about discipleship in our world the ancient creed of christianity serves as an intellectual guide to deep and lasting faith the early church recognized that christians would face challenges of every sort and the most enduring challenge would be in the arena of ideas the ancient creed reveals to us the ideas of god how god understands himself creation human beings purpose and destiny yet most of us are unfamiliar with this great treasure left to us by our forebears we have a rich intellectual heritage as broad and deep as the mind of god himself the creed of the early church serves as a map or guide to authentic christian faith within these boundaries of true belief we can find god if we search with a humble and sincere heart the worship of god with the mind forever changes our perception of the entire human experience read with the expectation that the ~~mygineering~~

This I Believe II 2008-09-30 in i believe in miracles author deidre spencer shares the knowledge she gained in her fight against cancer and she provides the tools necessary to discover how to heal as a cancer survivor deidre has beaten the odds conquering an aggressive form of cancer that had an additional genetic disorder component making it difficult for the doctors to treat through it all she demonstrates the strength of conviction to follow through on her beliefs and through sheer determination positive thinking and with support from family and friends she pulled herself through those traumatic times initially the doctors saved her from the brink of death when she had only two weeks left to live she then survived a stem cell transplant finding she was sensitive to the chemotherapy medicine and other drugs used in treating the side effects she again came close to dying when she pulled through the second time she had to learn to eat and walk again she realised then that she had to heal all of herself not only physically but also mentally emotionally and spiritually what she calls the four bodies deidre is now in full remission i believe in miracles is a journey of self discovery trauma and self healing deidre believes that if she can do it so can others
