Teaching Aptitude and Social Adjustment of Hindi teachers 2020-06-10 1 0 introduction historically teachers played a vital role in shaping the destiny of society and promoting the causes of peace in different classes in ancient india teacher or guru was called a spiritual leader and was looked upon as an ideal in the society he was the leader of the society and even a king came to him for guidance the teacher should be a sheet anchor to society amidst the tumult of social change being a teacher he is to be a change agent transforming ideas into ideals and ideals into institutions which may spread the light of knowledge and wisdom into eternity it is the teacher who helps to transform an individual into a person of imagination wisdom human love and enlightenment the institutions into lamp posts for posterity and the country into a learning society it is fortunate for us to have been born in a country of great teachers like mahaveer buddha shankara ramanuja and mahatma mohandas karamchand gandhi the father of indian nation

Representations of Children and Success in Asia 2022-09-28 this edited volume explores how success is conceptualized and represented in texts for young people in asia the essays in this collection examine how success for children relates to education family gender race class community and the nation it answers the following questions how is success for children represented in literature cinema and popular media in what ways are these images grounded in the historical political and cultural contexts in which they are produced and consumed how does childhood agency influence ideas about success in asia highlighting the similarities and differences in how success is defined for children and young adults in japan south korea people s republic of china singapore taiwan indonesia vietnam and india this volume argues that success is an important keyword in the literary and cultural study of childhood in asia

Corporate Success and Transformational Leadership 1990 in the contemporary indian society all the institutions be it social economic religious or political are undergoing an unprecedented scale of metamorphosis all round there is value erosion and people are increasingly experiencing a sense of powerlessness helplessness meaninglessness and normlessness although this is a pervasive phenomenon its intensity is much greater in economic institutions corporate world and the government today there is a need to resurrect a set of values in these institutions to prepare administrators and executives to cope with and effectively manage the consequences of powerlessness helplessness meaninglessness and normlessness there is also a need to groom and develop the business and government leaders of tomorrow to face this scenario and appropriately handle it the most powerful way of achieving this is through the process of socializing the leaders with the experience of corporate success organisation building and transformation sharing these experiences helps enormously in inculcating a sense of values and meaning heightens the consciousness and provides powerful role models business schools unfortunately in india overemphasize learning through the cases of failures rather than through success stories there is virtually no scientific work available which highlights the experience of success and transformation in the indian organisations the present work is a modest attempt in this direction it highlights a the profile and role of transformational leaders and b the process of culture building and corporate transformation in five indian organisations three belonging to the public sector one to the corporate and one to the private sector the cases have been built around the following five themes 1 building a new church 2 from solo to folk 3 quest for excellence 4 from pandemonium to peace and 5 man at the centre
