Not Just a Shelter Kid 2014-02-25

first published in 1997 this book is about children and their perspectives these children were homeless at the time of these interviews however their questions thoughts and feelings are not unique to homeless children the many issues of childhood remain the same regardless of where the child lives the ideas expressed in these pages are some of the universal themes of growing up and becoming an adult their search for identity the desire to care for someone and have them care for you trust stability in an ever changing world all of these themes were present in the children's interviews and photographs

in 2008 the musée des beaux arts de lyon acquired a painting called the flight into egypt which was attributed to the french artist nicolas poussin thought to have been painted in 1657 the painting had gone missing for more than three centuries several versions were rediscovered in the 1980s and one was passed from hand to hand from a family who had no idea of its value to gallery owners and eventually to the museum a painting that had been sold as a decorative object in 1986 for around 12 000 euros was acquired two decades later by the musée des beaux arts de lyon for 17 million euros what does this remarkable story tell us about the nature of art and the way that it is valued how is it that what seemed to be just an ordinary canvas could be transformed into a masterpiece that a decorative object could become a national treasure this is a story permeated by social magic the social alchemy that transforms lead into gold the ordinary into the extraordinary the profane into the sacred focusing on this extraordinary case bernard lahire lays bare the beliefs and social processes that underpin the creation of a masterpiece like a detective piecing together the clues in an unsolved mystery he carefully reconstructs the steps that led from the same material object being treated as a copy of insignificant value to being endowed with the status of a highly prized painting commanding a record breaking price he thereby shows that a painting is never just a painting and is always more than a piece of stretched canvass to which brush strokes of paint have been applied this object and the value we attach to it is also the product of a complex array of social processes with its distinctive institutions and experts that lies behind it and through the history of this painting lahire uncovers some of the fundamental structures of our social world for the social magic that can transform a painting from a simple copy into a masterpiece is similar to the social magic that is present throughout our societies in economics and politics as much as art and religion a magic that results from the spell cast by power on those who tacitly recognize its authority by following the trail of a single work of art lahire interrogates the foundations on which our perceptions of value and our belief in institutions rest and exposes the forms of domination which lie hidden behind our admiration of works of art life we all have our concepts of learning about it and dealing with it but sometimes we don t know what happens and how to react to it we become handicapped even without being and that s what made me write this book situations are gifts which comes in the form of worst conditions but usually we unwrap it happily and then we get something undesired and i think the stuffs which are not expected comes as a best gift for future we never know where we will choose those little ways to fit it but whenever we get the right place to make it we find it beautiful similar are the years we get a year in our hand we unwrap it with wishes and best of luck but never know what will happen the next day we never know who will teach us what where we would be when we are flowing with the trails of life and in those streets of memory lane we don t need long conversations or paragraphs for healing us what we need is just few words which would make us move with the similar things and new us though i don t know who will take my words relatable and where after my success over a short book of liners i thought of writing something which shouldn t be optional as it was as earlier i always want everyone to read my books earlier when i use to writing long stories and poems i realized that s something i wrote for myself but let s work together so that i can make a bit reachable to everyone in this era were a group of just few people love reading books and rest are happy reading post i want everyone to hold this

in general histories of india the part of the country with which we are concerned figures only in a small way vincent smith rightly observed most historians of ancient india have written as if the south did not exist and explained this neglect of the south in two ways the historian of india he said is bound by the nature of things to direct his attention to the north and is able to give only a secondary place to the story of deccan plateau and the far south south india and northern ceylone are the one of the oldest inhabited regions of the world and its prehistoric archaeology and contacts with neighbouring lands so far as traceable constitutes an important chapter in the history of world s civilizations the marathas of the western deccan are the southern most of indo aryan speaking people and all the country to the east and south of them speaks languages which fall into a single group with thamizh as the source which is the classical living language exists the ethnicity called thamizhan with its own individuality and unique unconquerable potency in both politics culture sport worship art agriculture and valour they had a wide spread life in now called india with himalayas as their border in north and kanyakumari in south this is what all about in this book the valour courage and valiance of kings and warriors who existed in thamizh ethnics right from the ancient era shown with available referrals from the thamizh epics and literatures from sangam era translated in english
