lanza now contains a fabulous new collection of forty rare photographs drawn from the private collections of lanza s closest friend terry robinson and the tenor s niece the former actress dolores hart mario lanza was blessed with one of the great tenor voices of all time a consummate artist whose repertoire recognized no musical boundaries groomed at the outset for a career on the opera stage lanza instead got sidetracked into hollywood where his powerful singing and larger than life personality made him an overnight sensation his films most notably the great caruso and serenade brought the world of puccini and his contemporaries to countless millions confirming his status as one of the most exciting entertainers of his day but his staggering successes came at a high price and by the age of thirty eight he was dead a victim of his own troubled psyche and expansive lifestyle this richly detailed and definitive examination of mario lanza s life and times warmly endorsed by the singer s daughter ellisa lanza bregman confronts the tragedy head on revealing in the process a man torn apart by inner demons and an unbridled passion for life it also includes the most exhaustive analysis ever captured in print of lanza s unforgettable career as a recording film and concert artist a memoir from worldwide singing sensation susan boyle an inspiring story about overcoming struggles and celebrating triumphs as she achieved her greatest dream in april 2009 a modest middle aged woman from a village in scotland was catapulted to global fame when the youtube video of her audition for britain s got talent touched the hearts of millions all over the world from singing karaoke in local pubs to a live performance with an eighty piece orchestra in japan s legendary budokan arena and a record breaking debut album susan boyle has become an international superstar this astonishing transformation has not always been easy for her faced with all the trappings of celebrity but in the whirlwind of attention and expectation she has always found calm and clarity in music susan was born to sing now for the first time she tells the story of her life and the challenges she has struggled to overcome with faith fortitude and an unfailing sense of humor a biography of the renowned gospel singer who hoped through her art to break down some of the barriers between black and white people a biography of the renowned gospel singer who hoped through her art to break down some of the barriers between black and white people an examination of worldviews religious belief and ritual as seen through the musical performances of one afro american baptist church in a small black community in rural mississippi let the church sing music and worship in a black mississippi community is based on years of fieldwork by an irish ethnomusicologist who examines in more detail than ever before how various facets of the clear creek citizens worldview find expression through religious ritual and music thérèse smith though originally very much an outsider gradually found herself welcomed into clear creek by members and officials of the clear creek missionary baptist church she was permitted to record many hours worth of sermons and singing and engaged in community events as a participant observer in addition she conducted plentiful interviews not just at clear creek but for comparison at main st baptist church in lexington kentucky all of this enables her to analyze in detail how music is interwoven in the worship service how people feel about the music that they make and hear and more generally how the religious views so vividly expressed help the church s members think about the relationship between themselves their community and the larger world music and prayer enable the members and leaders of the church to bring the realm of the spiritual into intersection with the material world in a particularly active way the book is enriched by extensive musical transcriptions and an accompanying cd of recordings from actual church services and these are examined in detail in the book itself thérèse smith is in the music department university college dublin reprint of the original first published in 1882 the fortitude which won kamlesh the cycle race had the designs of victories her future awaited though the battle was still her own it was for her son jeet to win for her the tide takes a turn for the worse when the very people who should have been the springboard to jeet s success pull the ladder from right under his feet the inconsistencies of the unjust world left her tentative and worried and her son battered and bruised jeet had fallen that s when jeet s angel the doppelganger emerges with the second wind which if unleashed would take jeet to unprecedented heights will he remain fallen will he not throw his dice in the game called life anymore will his courage rise with every attempt of intimidating him above all will he be born in the second wind amazon com 30 000 union casualties at gettysburg by generals and staff and by the life to come many helpful indexes enable fitting choices to be made that will enrich all occasions of worship two years after its initial publication and aftersales of 120 000 copies this presentation edition of singing the faith the authorised hymn book of the methodist church is published to public demand more than just a hymn book the church famously expresses its theology through its hymnody and thus its hymn book is also a devotional and theological resource seven years in development singing the faith contains the classic best loved hymns of christian tradition and also incorporates many exciting new hymns songs and liturgical chants from the world church a large proportion of its 830 items are 20th and 21st century compositions offering a feast of musical choices spanning centuries and continents it is arranged thematically in three parts god's eternal goodness the trinity praise and adoration creation gathering for worship scripture and revelation god's redeeming work the life of christ revealed throughout the christian year god's enduring purposes the holy spirit our life in god prayer the sacraments our human journeys the saints and the life to come to weave and sing is the first in depth analysis of the rich spiritual and artistic traditions of the carib speaking yekuana indians of venezuela who live in the dense rain forest of the upper orinoco within their homeland of ihuruna the yekuana have succeeded in maintaining the integrity and unity of their culture resisting the devastating effects of acculturation that have befallen so many neighboring groups yet their success must be attributed to more than natural barriers of rapids and waterfalls to more than lack of contact with our modern world the ethnographic history recounted here includes not only the spanish discovery of the yekuana but detailed indigenous accounts of the entire history of yekuana contact with western culture revealing an adaptive technique of mythopoesis by which the symbols of a new and hostile european ideology have been consistently defused through their incorporation into traditional indigenous structures the author's initial point of departure is the watunna the yekuana creation epic but he finds his principal entrance into this mythic world through basketry focusing on the elaborate kinetic designs of the round waja baskets and the stories told about them guss argues that the problem of understanding yekuana basketry is the problem of understanding all traditional art forms within a tribal context and critiques the cultural assumptions inherent in our systems of classification he demonstrates that the symbols woven into the baskets function not in isolation but collectively as a powerful system cutting across the entire culture to weave and sing addresses all yekuana material culture and the greater reality it both incorporates and masks discerning a unifying configuration of symbols in chapters on architectural forms the geography of the body and the use of herbs face paints and chants a narrow view of slash and burn gardens as places of mere subsistence is challenged by guss's portrait of these exclusively female spaces as systematic inversions of the male world the sacred turned on its head throughout a wealth of narrative and ritual materials provides us with the closest approximation we have to a native exegesis of these phenomena what we are offered here is a new poetics of culture ethnography not as a static given but as a series of shifting fields wherein culture and our image of it is constantly recreated in all of its parts by all of its members cabaret performances are often known for bringing alive the great american songbook from the 1920s through the 1950s for contemporary audiences but modern day cabaret does much more than preserve the past it also promotes and fosters the new generation of american composers and creates a uniquely vibrant musical and theatrical
