Clair Bee 1896-1983 was a hugely successful basketball coach at Rider College and Long Island University with a 412 and 87 record before his career was derailed in 1951 by a point shaving scandal in the trial that sent his star player Sherman White to prison the judge excoriated Bee for creating a morally lax culture that contributed to his players involvement with gambling to a certain extent Bee agreed with the judge's scolding concluding that coaches himself included had become so driven to succeed on the court that they had lost sight of the educational role sports should play his coaching career effectively over Bee launched an effort to reform the ills he saw in college sports and he did so in the pages of the Chip Hilton novels for young readers he began
