Heaven Our Home. We Have No Saviour But Jesus, and No Home But Heaven 1861 this collection is a combination of romantic philosophic mystical and spiritual poetry written to warm even the coldest of hearts they come from a very inspired place that speaks of a great desire to understand ourselves the elusive butterfly in all of us that out of its innate curiosity to learn and experience things by necessity transforms itself they also speak of the unique place that we all share in the divine tapestry we call life and how we are all intimately connected the poems reflect on the betrayal and hypocrisy that we all inevitably encounter on our journey through life most importantly a message of hope and joy runs through them so that we are always reminded that even in our darkest moments the light of truth and love has never abandoned us the book also shares some of the stories that inspired and motivated some of the poems they run the gamut from gut wrenching tearjerkers to deeply impassioned pleas for universal kindness to the whimsical frolic of a playful little child included is a section titled musings on life these are philosophic perspectives intended to be life lessons for the reader it s been said that not all men are masters but all masters have been men along that same line of thinking the author feels that although not all philosophers are poets all poets are philosophers

The Happiness of Heaven 2022-07-31 if life is about the journey and not the destination could it be that this is heaven this physical life we are living here on earth what we experience in our daily lives often feels like anything but heaven but what if we understood how powerful we are that we are powerful enough to mold both our internal and our external reality anita moorjani the new york times bestselling author of Dying to Be Me is convinced we can do exactly that the process she explains requires dismantling many cultural myths mistaken for indisputable truths beliefs such as we get what we deserve loving ourselves is selfish and coincidences are just that coincidences are ingrained within us from birth pervasive and influential leading to generations of misguidance following her near death experience moorjani began to embody truths she learned in the other realm discovering that letting go of these outmoded myths allowed her to experience heaven not as a physical place but as a state of mind right here and right now in this examination of our common myths she shares stories and examples from her own life revealing the lies beneath the surface of what she was taught and absorbed by freeing ourselves from these falsehoods moorjani asserts we can leave fear heartache and self imposed boundaries behind and instead live lives full of purpose and joy
