is a wonderful and insightful collection of stories and reflections of mothers on the connection with their own mother after becoming a mother themselves the chapters are primarily autobiographical and are told through a range of lens be it a graphic chapter or the more literary an author outlines anishinaabeg ceremonial practices that honour and represent maternal connections and others demonstrate how art and craft can both assist in working through and carry forward maternal stories two further pieces use a combination of literary critique feminist theory and post freudian psychoanalysis to interpret varied texts and another highlights findings from a series of interviews with women reflecting on the attributes and practices they will carry forward or discard from their experience of being mothered there are times in all of our lives when we look to the sky and wonder if the dark clouds shadowing our lives will ever part when we wonder if we will ever be warmed by the sunshine again we may be challenged to overcome a single tribulation or a series of trials but we all find ourselves facing and enduring heartache tracy brooks has perhaps experienced more than her fair share of heartache most notably experiencing the ultimate betrayal and abandonment of the dearest person in her life getting back on your feet can seem like an insurmountable task after being wounded so deeply but tracy realized there was nothing else she could do but move on and wait for the clouds to part in this memoir she seeks to reaffirm that storms of life really do pass and that the sun can shine again she shares what encouragement can do for someone going through difficult times in their life and how those encouraging others through their journeys are blessed she hopes to restore faith and reminds readers to pray through hard times brooks memoir shows that regardless of the adversity you're facing faith can get you through hers is a story of finding peace among all the pieces it is the deep south in the 1930s mae is just three when her father is tragically killed by white men a short time later her distraught mother flees the plantation for the big city now left in the care of her grandmother big mama little mae has unfortunately already discovered that life is uncertain and that nothing is promised despite her best efforts she cannot forgive or forget her beloved daddy's death as mae continues her coming of age journey in a wooden drafted four room building she learns how to love pray and hope for better days even as she faces obstacles and negative forces that make her life almost unbearable at times because of her strong moral values she is called miss goody two shoes by her classmates still mae presses on attains good grades and sets a lofty goal for herself to attend college but will she be able to persevere and find a purpose for her life despite her trials tribulations and disappointments in this historical tale an african american girl growing up on a plantation must learn how to endure her challenges and dream big in order to escape her fate and realize happiness and success ebenezer baptist church in atlanta was founded in 1886 the name ebenezer means rock or stone of help from a small group of believers many of whom were former slaves in a boxlike structure on airline alley ebenezer has grown to an internationally known church with over 4 000 members the gothic architecture of the heritage sanctuary on auburn avenue coupled with the influence of the african meetinghouse seen in the architecture of the horizon sanctuary across the street reflects the diversity of outreach of ebenezer's ministry ebenezer has been a beacon of racial pride and social consciousness the love and cooperation between the members answers when you face issues can cause you to search in so many directions by revealed essence is a reminder to open yourself to the word of god and look within dr martin luther king jr pastored the dexter avenue baptist church in montgomery alabama from 1954 to 1960 within months of his arrival there rosa parks a young seamstress refused to yield her seat to a white man on a segregated montgomery bus her arrest sparked the formation of the montgomery improvement association and the famous montgomery bus boycott of 1955 1956 the young rev king was elected leader of this epic struggle which ushered in the nonviolent direct action phase of the civil rights movement this unique book records the testimonies of rev king s congregation they present a view of brother pastor dr king as we have never seen him before as he rapidly rose to international prominence as one of the greatest leaders of the modern era african americans encountered many challenges throughout history facing slavery reconstruction jim crow and other forms of racism many relied on religion as their source of strength and endurance the african american religious experience is a story of survival that demonstrates how religion became the key ingredient that allowed a race to adapt and survive the harshest systems of injustice and prejudice in america religion became the greatest universal and dynamic tool of survival adopted by enslaved individuals and the utmost weapon known to the black race african american religious practices a blend of african and european traditions are distinctively unique because of worship styles and contemplative practices all reflective of the vital role religion played in the lives of blacks during slavery and beyond michelle knows that being the first lady of mount zion baptist church is an important and much coveted position so she always gives thanks for a dutiful husband and a prosperous life but she also prays for darvin to spend more time with her talking about something other than mount zion s affairs michelle s faith is further put to the test when the seductive vixen daphne carlton arrives on the steps of their church determined to make michelle s life a living hell so that she can get rid of michelle and assume her role as the first lady with michelle representing the reputation of her husband and church she feels the burden to respond in a prim and proper manner but she knows that in real life such behavior might not be enough to defeat an enemy once and for all how far is the first lady willing to go in order to stop daphne the doctrine and discipline of the ame zion church 2012 is the book of discipline for this 218 year old denomination based upon the original tenets of wesleyan theology and doctrine and under girded by its founders of african birth the church s mission is to promote freedom and liberty to the lost and disenfranchised reverend lawrence l blankenship has created a new book offering a fresh look at one of the most important and controversial works for men and women to study the laws of god and the laws of the state vol 2 note if we obey the laws of god well not disobey the laws of the state the laws of god and the laws of the state vol 2 is a christian work that attempts to reconcile contemporary secular law with ancient laws of the bible this volume is divided into two sections one outlines the statutes of gods laws and scriptural laws and the other studies the laws of the state within the first section you learn the basis of biblical laws in the second section you learn how these laws may be applied to contemporary law this volume also includes the civil and criminal laws of gods and statutes of the state for easy reference the laws of god and the laws of the state vol 2 seeks to provide an informed perspective on the biblical references to legal matters this approach may be appropriate for students of the bible or students of jurisprudence the author hopes the public will obtain an understanding of the entire process while developing skills necessary to understand both laws for many years people have asked me to write about my theology and i have consistently said that i could tell them what i thought at that particular day but that it would be different tomorrow which is to say that i strongly believe that theology is a growing thing constantly changing within the context of a changing society the book became much more autobiographical than i intended i discovered that my theology changed because of any experiences i had i have described my story chronologically beginning with my early years and how the myth of christianity was implanted in my mind i go on to show how i got involved in the church during high school and college and discovered others had different myths than i did this expanding awareness gave me the stimulus to take a hard look at my own myth several professors at both college and seminary helped me through the changes in my understanding of the christian faith and i describe via some of my writings what those were in my first congregation a new church development and in subsequent ones i realized that we understate our laity and their desire to learn about new concepts has come with further study of scholars i came to trust that desire and began to preach and teach not only the church s dogmatics but also the results of creative imagination and the discovery of many scholars throughout the world and from many religious perspectives my final chapter is entitled so what do you believe in this i make an attempt to pull together the various and growing concepts of my thought throughout my fifty plus years in the ordained ministry of the presbyterian church from experience i know laypersons would be interested in this book in addition pastors and other religious professionals i think would find it helpful as they go through their own theological pilgrimage her vivid participant observer portrait sheds light on a remarkably little understood social formation that shapes the lives of millions of inner city african americans the evangelical storefront church one man could have enabled the most audacious terrorist threat against america prior to 9 11 and helped the nazis win world war ii the nazi spy pastor carl krepper his riveting story brings to light a forgotten chapter in the history of the second world war as america continues to wrestle with issues surrounding the threat of sabotage and terrorism this eye opening work details a very real threat faced by our country in the second world war and the key aspects of the underground war that was fought in this country by nazi agents the nazi spy pastor carl krepper and the war in america presents the fascinating true story of a secret plot to be executed on american soil a german sabotage operation with intended targets in new york new jersey pennsylvania tennessee and illinois this book chronicles for the first time the remarkable life of carl krepper naturalized american citizen lutheran pastor and the nazi deep cover operative who could have made possible the greatest terrorist threat on american soil prior to the attacks on september 11th historian j francis watson draws on newly declassified archival and documentary materials to tell the full story of how a devoted clergyman lost his way and betrayed his calling instead advocating an ideology that supported genocide and the deaths of innocent victims in america and how he came to play a key role in the pastorius sabotage plot the book covers fascinating cloak and dagger details of submarine infiltrations safe houses and secret codes detailing krepper s life his work as a nazi agent and the fbi sting operation that finally brought about his arrest in december of 1944 this little known real life espionage story will serve students of world war ii history and appeal to readers interested in immigration and the integration of immigrant populations as well as the histories of new york and new jersey an extraordinary baptist jimmy allen served as the last moderate president of the southern baptist convention concluding his second term in 1979 the first year of the emergence of a fundamentalist leadership of the convention this title presents an account of allen s life many people come to church to find a sense of peace but what happens when the church you attend is known for gossip and your secret comes to light history of the north arkansas baptist association volume 2 is a chronicling of mission history of the churches and their members reaching out from their own jerusalem located in four counties in northwest arkansas to the uttermost part of the world it follows churches and individuals as they go on mission to meet physical and spiritual needs unmet by a world that is blind to their cries it contains the life history of fifty six plus congregations as they grow in number and spirit reaching their individuals with the claims of discipleship under jesus christ pastors too are highlighted in the histories of their pilgrimages in the faith the history is a must read for every believer both to give encouragement regarding the past mission advance and to challenge would be missionaries and the churches that support them talented musician and an expert photographer his photography career spanned nearly a half century and produced thousands of photographs and negatives following his death in 1995 members of the family decided to gather as many images as possible especially the early ones however the search that the family conducted for the negatives and photos that chronicle our father s photographic career resulted in finding materials that are equally emblematic of his role as a minister of the gospel we found an unexpected treasure in the copies of the notes that he used to construct his sermons these hand written notes were probably also used when he preached many were dated and cited the church where they were delivered the earliest one dated to 1948 with the last ones ending in 1988 surprisingly many of the messages he conveyed have a timeless nature to them as the issues which he addressed are still relevant this small volume is also enriched by copies of photos taken from our fathers collection and scans of some of the original notes the majority of the sermons in this book were preached during dad s pastorate of the cold spring baptist church in buffalo new york he was the pastor of cold springs located at verplanck and woodlawn avenues from about 1956 to 1961 during the latter part of his tenure at the church his sermons show signs of mounting frustration and difficulties with a faction of the congregation i leave the analysis of this period of my fathers ministry to the reader but i think that these sermons provide an interesting picture of the management problems that many ministers encounter in their positions as spiritual as well as organizational leaders finally we were extremely fortunate that these papers werent over looked and destroyed i have to give special acknowledgement to my brothers james john and jerry for their foresight in gathering these sermons the negatives and photographs for preservation initially i transcribed these sermons notes and saved them to be shared with the family it s taken over 15 years but finally they can be passed down to a generation who were not even alive when our father died however i believe that these papers represent not just a family legacy as they illustrate a tradition of the black ministry like so many of his peers our father was an itinerant minister who answered his call to ministry while keeping his day job in my father s case day jobs this little book offers a glimpse into the life of a black man born more than a century ago who persevered against the challenges of his day to succeed in several chosen fields the members of calvary church yesterday and today are responsible for this narration of the church s history from 1909 to 2002 when nayrena kokomo goes to church spiritual warfare is in the midst of her sabbath fellowship of the sistahs and the brothahs you will gain insight into the lives of so many hurting bereaved humorous loving and discouraged individuals who belong to sanctuaries similar to yours and mine often they exist without the necessary spiritual tools to survive you will meet people who are attending church but are not always of the church the author will take you on a sunday morning journey of revival and survival of people with incredible stories of praise amidst the challenges of everyday life walk with her as the holy spirit deals with her divination and restoration you will see the men women and children who struggle with issues of faith with humor inspiration deceit and wisdom what follows is an analysis of christian development human weaknesses cultural issues intimacy in relationships religious discrimination and conversations with god through the holy spirit and ultimately spiritual restoration life can bring the unexpected broken home sexual abuse toxic church environment generational curses sickness and even death through it all one must make two major decisions to trust in god s unchanging hand and to live through it it can make you bitter or it can make you better throughout this book you will see how i made a choice to live many circumstances were thrown in my way and tried to stop me and take my very life through my faith and relationship with the lord i made an adamant decision to live to the readers i pray you find yourself in this book i pray that you are inspired to walk in faith and overcome any situation that has been put before you remember with god all things are possible sincerely alexis murphy

The Epworth Herald 1907 for many years people have asked me to write about my theology and i have consistently said that i could tell them what i thought at that particular day but that it would be different tomorrow which is to say that i strongly believe that theology is a growing thing constantly changing within the context of a changing society the book became much more autobiographical than i intended i discovered that my theology changed because of any experiences i had i have described my story chronologically beginning with my early years and how the myth of christianity was implanted in my mind i go on to show how i got involved in the church during high school and college and discovered others had different myths than i did this expanding awareness gave me the stimulus to take a hard look at my own myth several professors at both college and seminary helped me through the changes in my understanding of the christian faith and i describe via some of my writings what those were in my first congregation a new church development and in subsequent ones i realized that we understate our laity and their desire to learn about new concepts has come with further study of scholars i came to trust that desire and began to preach and teach not only the church's dogmatics but also the results of creative imagination and the discovery of many scholars throughout the world and from many religious perspectives my final chapter is entitled so what do you believe in this i make an attempt to pull together the various and growing concepts of my thought throughout my fifty plus years in the ordained ministry of the presbyterian church from experience i know laypersons would be interested in this book in addition pastors and other religious professionals i think would find it helpful as they go through their own theological pilgrimage

2014-12-11 an extraordinary baptist jimmy allen served as the last moderate president of the southern baptist convention concluding his second term in 1979 the first year of the emergence of a fundamentalist leadership of the convention this title presents an account of allen's life

Movie Star Woman in the Land of the Black Angries 1971 many people come to church to find a sense of peace but what happens when the church you attend is known for gossip and your secret comes to light

When We Know Better 1999 history of the north arkansas baptist association volume 2 is a chronicling of mission history of the churches and their members reaching out from their own jerusalem located in four counties in northwest arkansas to the uttermost part of the world it follows churches and individuals as they go on mission to meet physical and spiritual needs unmet by a world that is blind to their cries it contains the life history of fifty six plus congregations as they grow in number and spirit reaching their individuals with the claims of discipleship under jesus christ pastors too are highlighted in the histories of their pilgrimages in the faith the history is a must read for every believer both to give encouragement regarding the past mission advance and to challenge would be missionaries and the churches that support them

The Laws of God and the Laws of the State 2013-10-21 talented musician and an expert photographer his photography career spanned nearly a half century and produced thousands of photographs and negatives following his death in 1995 members of the family decided to gather as many images as possible especially the early ones however the search that the family conducted for the negatives and photos that chronicle our father s photographic career resulted in finding materials that are equally emblematic of his role as a minister of the gospel we found an unexpected treasure in the copies of the notes that he used to construct his sermons these hand written notes were probably also used when he preached many were dated and cited the church where they were delivered the earliest one dated to 1948 with the last ones ending in 1988 surprisingly many of the messages he conveyed have a timeless nature to them as the issues which he addressed are still relevant this small volume is also enriched by copies of photos taken from our fathers collection and scans of some of the original notes the majority of the sermons in this book were preached during dad s pastorate of the cold spring baptist church in buffalo new york he was the pastor of cold springs located at verplanck and woodlawn avenues from about 1956 to 1961 during the latter part of his tenure at the church his sermons show signs of mounting frustration and difficulties with a faction of the congregation i leave the analysis of this period of my fathers ministry to the reader but i think that these sermons provide an interesting picture of the management problems that many ministers encounter in their positions as spiritual as well as organizational leaders finally we were extremely fortunate that these papers werent over looked and destroyed i have to give special acknowledgement to my brothers james john and jerry for their foresight in gathering these sermons the negatives and photographs for preservation initially i transcribed these sermons notes and saved them to be shared with the family it s taken over 15 years but finally they can be passed down to a generation who were not even alive when our father died however i believe that these papers represent not just a family legacy as they illustrate a tradition of the black ministry like so many of his peers our father was an itinerant minister who answered his call to ministry while keeping his day job in my father s case day jobs this little book offers a glimpse into the life of a black man born more than a century ago who persevered against the challenges of his day to succeed in several chosen fields

The Pastor's Diary 2015-09-11 the members of calvary church yesterday and today are responsible for this narration of the church s history from 1909 to 2002
