into an argument that stands up to reader critique the fourth edition has been thoroughly but respectfully revised by Joseph Bizup and William T. Fitzgerald. It retains the original five part structure as well as the sound advice of earlier editions but reflects the way research and writing are taught and practiced today. Its chapters on finding and engaging sources now incorporate recent developments in library and internet research emphasizing new techniques made possible by online databases and search engines. Bizup and Fitzgerald provide fresh examples and standardized terminology to clarify concepts like argument warrant and problem following the same guiding principle as earlier editions that the skills of doing and reporting research are not just for elite students but for everyone. This new edition retains the accessible voice and direct approach that have made the craft of research a leader in the field of research reference with updated examples and information on evaluation and using contemporary sources. This beloved classic is ready for the next generation of researchers.
