Routledge Handbook of Urbanization in Southeast Asia 2018-10-11 the study of urbanization in southeast asia has been a growing field of research over the past decades the routledge handbook of urbanization in southeast asia offers a collection of the major streams and themes in the studies of the cities in the region a focus on the urbanization process rather than the city as an object opens the topic more broadly to bring together different perspectives this timely handbook presents these diverse views to build a clearer understanding of theoretical contributions of urban studies in southeast asia and to provide a complete collection of scholarly works that are thematically structured and a useful tool for teaching urbanization in southeast asia following the introduction by the editor the handbook is structured along central emerging themes it contains six parts which are each introduced by the editor theorizing urbanization in southeast asia migration networks and identities development and discontents environmental governance the social production of the urban fabric social change and alternative development this handbook will be an essential reference work for scholars interested in urban studies cities and urbanization in asia and southeast asian studies

The Other Kuala Lumpur 2014-02-05 kuala lumpur like many southeast asian cities has changed very significantly in the last two or three decades expanding its size and modernising and globalising its built environment for many people these changes represent progress and development this book however focuses on the more marginalised residents of kuala lumpur among others it considers street hawkers and vendors refugees the urban poor religious minorities and a sexuality rights group and explores how their everyday lives have been adversely affected by these recent changes the book shows how urban renewal the law and ethno religious nationalism can work against these groups in wanting to live and work in the capital city of malaysia

The Everyday Life of Urban Inequality 2020-07-08 the everyday life of urban inequality explores how steadily increasing inequality and the spectacular pace of urbanization frame daily life for city residents around the world ethnographic case studies from five continents highlight the impact of place the tools of memory and the power of collective action as communities interact with centralized processes of policy and capital by focusing on situated experiences of displacement belonging and difference the contributors to this collection illustrate the many ways urban inequalities take shape combine and are perpetuated

Modern Hinduism 2019-06-27 the oxford history of hinduism modern hinduism focuses on developments resulting from movements within the tradition as well as contact between india and the outside world through both colonialism and globalization divided into three parts part one considers the historical background to modern conceptualizations of hinduism moving away from the reforms of the 19th and early 20th century part two includes five chapters each presenting key developments and changes in religious practice in modern hinduism part three moves to issues of politics ethics and law this section maps and explains the powerful legal and political contexts created by the modern state first the colonial government and then the indian republic which have shaped hinduism in new ways the last two chapters look at hinduism outside india focusing on hinduism in nepal and the modern hindu diaspora

Penang and Its Region 2009-01-01 from its beginnings in the late eighteenth century the vibrant colonial port of penang attracted a diverse range of peoples enabled pioneering commercial enterprises and fomented inter ethnic collaboration and inter cultural borrowings the island came to be known as the pearl of the orient and for many travellers it was their first port of call in southeast asia in the early nineteenth century singapore displaced penang in international trade but the island remained a major focus of regional trade for this reason the story of penang's relations with the malay peninsula and other parts of southeast asia reveal a great deal about conditions within the region

Religion, Place and Modernity 2016-05-09 the volume religion place and modernity explores the spatial articulation of religion and modernity in and through places in southeast and east asia based on ethnographic historical and theoretical research the authors aim at a deeper understanding of the articulation of a religious modernity

Religious Pluralism, State and Society in Asia 2013-10-01 taking a critical approach to the concept of religious pluralism this book examines the dynamics of religious co existence in asia as they are directly addressed by governments or indirectly managed by groups and individuals it looks at the quality of relations that emerge in encounters among people of different religious traditions or among people who hold different visions within the same tradition chapters focus in particular on the places of everyday religious diversity in asian societies in order to explore how religious groups have confronted new situations of religious diversity the book goes on to explore the conditions under which active religious pluralism emerges or not from material contexts of diversity

Localizing the Internet 2011-08-01 internet activism is playing a crucial role in the democratic reform happening across many parts of southeast asia focusing on subang jaya a suburb of kuala lumpur this study offers an in depth examination of the workings of the internet at the local level in fact subang jaya is regarded as malaysia's electronic governance laboratory the author explores its field of residential affairs a digitally mediated social field in which residents civil servants politicians online journalists and other social agents struggle over how the locality is to be governed at the dawn of the information era drawing on the field theories of both pierre bourdieu and the manchester school of political anthropology this study challenges the unquestioned predominance of network and community as the two key sociation concepts in contemporary internet studies the analysis extends field theory in four new directions namely the complex articulations between personal networking and social fields the uneven diffusion and circulation of new field technologies and contents intra and inter field political crises and the emergence of new forms of residential sociality

Government-Linked Companies and Sustainable, Equitable Development 2014-11-27 the debate over how far governments should intervene in economies in order to promote economic growth a debate which from the 1980s seemed settled in favour of the neo liberal non interventionist consensus has taken on new vigour since the financial crisis of 2008 and after some countries most of them in industrialised asia have survived the crisis and secured equitable economic growth by adopting a developmental state model whereby governments have intervened in their economies often through explicit support for individual companies this book explores debates about government intervention assesses interventionist policies including industrial and innovation policies and examines in particular the key institutions which play a crucial role in implementing government policies and in building the bridge between the state and the private sector the countries covered include china india south korea malaysia and taiwan together with representative countries from europe and latin america

The Haze Problem in Southeast Asia 2015-07-16 despite the efforts of southeast asian governments and of asean transboundary haze continues to be a major environmental problem in southeast asia this book demonstrates that the issue is complex and explains why efforts to solve the problem in purely political terms are ineffective and likely to continue to be ineffective the book shows how state led state incentivised agribusiness development lies at the heart of the problem leading to a large rise in palm oil production with extensive clearing of forests leading to deliberate or accidental fires and the resulting haze moreover although the forest clearing is occurring in indonesia many of the companies involved are malaysian and singaporean and further many of these companies have close relationships with the politicians and officials responsible for addressing the problem and who thereby have a conflict of interest the author concludes by discussing the huge difficulties involved in overturning this system of patronage politics

MALAYSIA POST-MAHATHIR: A Decade of Change 2015-08-15 examining contestation and conflict management within holy cities this book provides both an overview and a range of options available to those concerned with this increasingly urgent phenomenon in cities in india the balkans and the mediterranean we can see examples where religion plays a dominant role in urban development and thus provides a platform for conflict powerful religious hierarchies the generation of often unregulated revenues from donations and endowments the presence of holy sites and the enactment of ritualistic activities in public spaces combine to create forms of conflicts which are arguably more intense and more intractable than other forms of conflicts in cities the book develops a working definition of the urban dimension of religious conflicts so that the kinds of conflicts exhibited can be contextualised and studied in a more targeted manner it draws together a series of case studies focusing on specific cities the kinds of religious conflicts occurring in them and the international structures and mechanisms that have emerged to address such conflicts combining expertise from both academics and practitioners in the policy and military world this interdisciplinary collection will be of particular relevance to scholars and students researching politics and religion regional studies geography and urban studies it should also prove useful to policymakers in the military and other international organisations

Contested Holy Cities 2019-05-14 what is a global city who authorizes the world class city this edited volume interrogates the global cities literature which views the city as a shimmering financial global network through a historical ethnographic exploration of inter ethnic relations in the other global cities of cairo beirut istanbul bukhara lhasa delhi singapore kuala lumpur and tokyo the well known contributors highlight cartographies of the other global city the volume contends that thinking about the city in the longue duree and as part of a topography of interconnected regions contests both imperial and nationalist ways of reading cities that have occasioned the many and particularly violent territorial partitions in asia and the world

The Other Global City 2009-01-13 one key concept in the large body of scholarship concerned with theorizing social relations is the idea of cosmopolitanism this book unpacks the idea of cosmopolitanism through the linked knowledges of the global south it brings into dialogue an interdisciplinary team of local and transnational scholars who examine various temporal cultural spatial and political contexts in countries as different yet connected as malaysia indonesia singapore india bangladesh japan korea and vietnam the book also considers a wide range of subjects present and historical real as represented in literature and in theatre and as theorized in philosophy across these diverse contexts but always focusing on regions and places where inter asian intermingling has taken place the conclusions arrived at are varied and considerably enrich social theorizing the book reveals a cosmopolitanism that is much more specifically asian than the cosmopolitanism usually associated with the west demonstrates how concepts of nation local and globalization play out in practice in asian settings and re examines concepts such as migration diaspora and the construction of identities the book has much to offer scholars engaged in history literary studies anthropology and cultural studies

Cosmopolitan Asia 2015-09-25 worlding multiculturalisms are practices that infuse our arbitrary cultural lives with new things from other cultures in poetic ways to enable us to dwell and be at home with the complexity of the world in the context of the crisis of multiculturalism in the west and the growing obsolescence of state based multiculturalism in the postcolonial world this book offers examples of new practices of worlding multiculturalisms that go beyond issues of immigration integration and identity contrasting western and asian notions of multiculturalism this book does not focus on state issues but rather highlights manifestations of cultural exchange the chapters draw on cultural studies approaches to document instances of worlding multiculturalisms that bring asian cultures into conflict dialogue and settlement with each other instances include an asian american return novel set in penang the cultural productions and street performances of democracy marches in malaysia the campaigns to reclaim public spaces and citizenship rights by migrant domestic workers in hong kong the imaginary vistas opened up by japanese popular culture consumed throughout asia the localisations of casino complexes in macau and a shopping mall in seoul and an old municipal cemetery being defended from urban redevelopment in singapore rather than merely globalizing forms of political diversity these are instances with the potential to transform social relations and the very terms of cultural exchange worlding multiculturalisms offers a truly interdisciplinary examination of multiculturalism in action as such it will appeal to students and scholars of cultural studies asian studies asian culture and society cultural anthropology and sociology and political sociology
