The Winepress of God's Wrath 2013-09-16 without exception this is the most revealing commentary of the book of revelation in decades this fresh and historically researched commentary reveals what early christians had known so many years ago about the apocalypse after 1 900 years present day christians finally have a reliable document that explains christ s prophetic book this commentary contains amazing insights one of the main adversaries in the book of revelation was a prominent historical figure he was known as the savior of the church people looked up to him and worshipped him the apostle paul called him the man of sin and the son of perdition 2 thessalonians 2 3 the apostle john in one of his earlier writings called him the antichrist 1 john 2 18 those who failed to get their names written in the book of life marveled at his presence in eternal punishment revelation 17 8 that person is identified by name in this commentary armageddon is more than a great battle in the book of revelation it is the one defining event that will affect everyone s life the number of combatants is as the sand of the sea yet the battle will be over before it ever begins revelation 20 8 9 the bowls of god s wrath were poured out on a wicked and unsuspecting world historically a foul and loathsome sore came upon the men who had the mark of the beast and those who worshipped his image revelation 16 2 this plague was described in detail by writers who lived as it occurred this commentary includes their firsthand accounts the winepress of god s wrath depicts god s anger at a wicked society while providing hope and comfort to believers the theme in the book of revelation is clear the wicked will not escape destruction only obedient christians will avoid the winepress of god s wrath

2014-12-02 there are many ways to be a christian in good news for moderns author nero james pruit shows that within the pages of the new testament there is room for a diversity of christianities this is a diversity that is not talked about often but when properly understood expands the perception of what a christian is consider the words of justin martyr the second century christian writer recognized as a saint by the catholic church the anglicans and the eastern orthodox in about 150 ad we are taught that christ is the first born of god and we have shown that he is the reason word of whom the whole human race partake and those who live according to reason are christians even though they are counted atheists such were socrates and heraclitus among the greeks and those like them consider the words of john adams the second president of the united states in 1816 the ten commandments and the sermon on the mount contain my religion consider the words bill clinton the forty second president of the united states in 1955 i had absorbed enough of my churchs teachings to know that i was a sinner and to want jesus to save me finally consider the words of the writer of the small new testament book of iii john whoever does good is from god good news for moderns is based on pruitts reading of the scriptures and over one hundred authors of various points of view in our busy time it is brief slightly more than one hundred thousand words supplemented by slightly less than one hundred thousand words of end notes it recognizes that human life moves by fast in what seems like an infinity of time and space and the book closes this way by listing many who have come before us and the immensity of time and space i have not defined

Thinking Queerly 2023-06-20 a case for literary critics and other humanists to stop wallowing in their aestheticized helplessness and instead turn to poetry comedy and love literary criticism is an agent of despair and its poster child is walter benjamin critics have spent decades stewing in his melancholy what if instead we dared to love poetry to choose comedy over hamlet s tragedy or to pursue romance over benjamin s suicide on the edge of france of europe and of civilization itself paul a bové challenges young lit critters to throw away their shades and let the sun shine in love s shadow is his three step manifesto for a new literary criticism that risks sentimentality and melodrama and eschews self consciousness the first step is to choose poetry there has been since the time of plato a battle between philosophy and poetry philosophy has championed misogyny while poetry has championed women like shakespeare s rosalind philosophy is ever so stringent try instead the sober cheerfulness of wallace stevens bové s second step is to choose the essay he praises benjamin s great friend and sometime antagonist theodor adorno who gloried in writing essays not dissertations and treatises the third step is to choose love if you want a baroque hero make that hero rembrandt who brought lovers to life in his paintings putting aside passivity and cynicism would amount to a revolution in literary studies bové seeks nothing less and ~~perhaps~~
