the fourfold gospel most often associated with albert b simpson founder of the christian and missionary alliance which focuses on the doctrines of christ as savior sanctifier healer and coming king has been identified as a key contributing factor to the birth and development of the modern pentecostal movement through a close observation of the doctrinal themes of select and renowned evangelical leaders in america a j gordon of boston d l moody of chicago a t pierson of philadelphia detroit and a b simpson of new york this work shows that the fourfold gospel and therefore the theological source for modern pentecostalism rather than being a marginal movement within late nineteenth century evangelicalism was instead its very heart this groundbreaking approach to the study of the fourfold gospel offers a challenging alternative to prevailing assumptions about the creation of the gospels and their portraits of jesus how and why does it matter that we have these four gospels why were they placed alongside one another as four parallel yet diverse retellings of the same story francis watson widely regarded as one of the foremost new testament scholars of our time explains that the four gospels were chosen to give a portrait of jesus he explores the significance of the fourfold gospel s plural form for those who constructed it and for later christian communities showing that in its plurality it bears definitive witness to what god has done in jesus christ watson focuses on reading the gospels as a group rather than in isolation and explains that the fourfold gospel is greater than and other than the sum of its individual parts interweaving historical exegetical and theological perspectives this book is accessibly written for students and pastors but is also of interest to professors and scholars the classic harmony of the gospels by j w mcgarvey and philip y pendleton with interspersed comments attractively re typeset this enduring work is a valuable resource to modern bible students in most commentaries a fifth or sixth of the space is taken up in drawing distinctions between the texts of the four gospels while in this work these distinctions are placed before the reader s eye where he can see them for himself at a glance moreover in other commentaries which give the text another sixth or seventh of the work is taken up in reprinting in the notes that portion of the text concerning which the commentator wishes to speak our interjected method avoids all this needless repetition and makes it possible for us to present the comment with the least preliminary verbiage or introductory setting time is also saved because the reader does not have to look back and forth from the text at the top to the comment at the bottom of the page again other commentaries lose a large amount of space by using the king james text those which preceded the revision waste space correcting the translation and modernizing its english those published since the revision suffer a similar waste by drawing endless comparisons between the two texts by choosing the american revision as the basis for our work we have a text which needs but little explanation or apology and we are thereby enabled to employ the reader s time and strength to his best advantage excerpted from the introduction excerpt from the fourfold gospel the proclamation of the new kingdom it will be maintained that this that is swimming to the shore and not making signs of assent was the meaning of some early and obscure tradition misinterpreted by luke who has also chronologically misplaced it but who has had the honesty to preserve the difficult word that led him astray the preface to luke s gospel states that he attempted to write in chronological order as well as accurately but it also implies that other evangelists had failed in this and it is not to be expected that luke would be always successful if in this instance luke has made a mistake we have at all events compensations we are relieved from the necessity of supposing that mark and matthew omitted what according to luke was a turning point in peter s career and in the johannine substitute we find a narrative that gives us a peculiarly beautiful and so to speak natural account of the impression produced on peter by the sympathetic insight love and regenerating power of the risen saviour about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works excerpt from the fourfold gospel section i introduction previous parts published in 1900 12 of the series of which this is the tenth have dealt mostly with words this part will attempt to elucidate thoughts with the help of the evidence extracted from the elucidations of words the earlier volumes might perhaps be described as a letting down of nets if so this one might be called an attempt to draw them in the nets were in fact footnotes which in former volumes were very many and very long they were also often apparently digressive the reason was that i mostly wrote them with a view to future investigations as well as or more than to the matter in hand when fishermen let down their nets the boats that row round a shoal of fish sometimes look as though they were rowing away from it and my boats often i dare say presented the appearance of rowing away from that which they were attempting to surround and capture now i fear that i may incur an opposite charge the notes in the present volume may seem too few and too slight to justify the statements placed in the text above them if they do i must ask the reader to remember that fishermen cannot draw nets in and let them down at one and the same time about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
