The Perception Transformation 2014-02-14 perception beliefs reality life is difficult that is how a lot of people perceive their own life and it is true for them because that is what they believe and their sub conscious mind would 100 support them the idea that life is hard but is life really that hard or we are just making it up in our own mind what we perceive is what we believe and all this is based on what we hear see feel and think our perception drives our behaviors everyday and our thoughts are perhaps the most crucial components of our ability to perceive in this book we will discuss in detail on the power of our perception and explore how the way our mind works affects our perception we will take a closer look at how each of us perceive the sight and sound he she receives in a way which is very different from each others we will also discuss the importance of perception in our understanding of what reality really is and show you some real life scenarios which will consolidate your understanding of our perception here is what you are about to find out perceived truths are not based on real truth the power to choose a response how your habitat forms your habits how to change your core beliefs the perception transformation has been composed to help you achieve a better understanding of your world and how you perceive things around you only through a proper understanding of perception can you learn and see the light even in your darkest of times by altering what you perceive as negative experiences you can alleviate your negative emotions and your self imposed restriction on leading a happy and healthy life

where would people like aristotle descartes and kant have taken their thinking if they had had from the start the benefit of twenty first century scientific knowledge and some hundreds or thousands of additional years of human history to consider the project is to step back from the thought that has gone before and step away from all the assumptions that we have made about the experience of being human this gives us the frame of reference from which to re visit the first questions of philosophy one thing about the human experience is clear we perceive we perceive a world of ideas and while in this world we can be completely free and unrestrained we perceive another world of people and things wherein everything can be understood in terms of constraints and the power to overcome them is there something called reality among these constraints one of the constraints is that our knowledge is limited and there are things that we can never know we decide how to divide our time between these perceived worlds and we ask is there a right thing to do beyond these first questions of philosophy the questions of being of knowledge and of ethics is there a question that we are missing there is a question that humans encounter and answer constantly throughout their lives that is the question which ultimately determines human conduct it is the question of importance

How Do You Handle Change, Perception, and Attitude?

life throws each of us curves and there are times these curves can damage us for life some curves stem out of our childhood siblings and so called friends there are so much envy jealousy and hatred among those who smile in our faces day to day there comes a time when we have to say enough is enough no more feeling sorry for ourselves no more regrets no more comparison with others and no more allowing people taking charge over us we must not let our past rule us we must not let rejection hinder us from trusting loving and forgiving we must show kindness compassion and love and we must open our hearts to receive kindness compassion and love why continue to go through life in denial putting up a mask over our hearts and minds we must see ourselves as special unique appreciated and loving let the queen and king in you shine allow yourself to love and be loved always put an effort to be the best version of yourself first to yourself and let that flow out to others these writings are not just for encouragement to you they are also for reflection of how you can start renewing your mind and opening your heart to the real you just because you failed before doesn't mean you must stop trying change is inevitable in life some people handle change in a positive manner and some do not in order to have change in a positive manner we first have to change our thinking we must be willing and teachable and adapt to be big and better when we choose to fight change we are not willing to see the big picture for something better change for some takes time to equate their thinking actions and perception when we are set in our ways we tend to be

stubborn and suspicious of authority of people and new ideas change sometimes makes people feel like it is an attack on their ability or performance they are unable to adapt to constructive criticism which is not the case in the majority of the time when there is a new administration there will be changes with new ideas on the operation duties and opportunities when there is a new person in our lives we tend to immediately think that they have hidden motives rather than accept that they bring a positive change that we have not seen before the wrong perception can hinder us from seeing the positive change that they bring to our lives adapting to change is up to you ask yourself what do you want what do you want to accomplish these are questions only you can answer be honest with your answer and then put your all into adapting to making your life better if there are areas in your life you need to change start making those changes the question are how do you handle change do you handle it with anticipation for a new beginning or with dread what perception are you bringing forth what attitude are you displaying this book was written for you to do a self evaluation objectively in the mirror both looking at your reflection from your own eyes and from the eyes of others as you presume they see you in other words how do you see you and how do you think others see you many times what we see and what others see are totally different however some see exactly what you see and that s a choice you accept as you read through this book occasionally stop and look in the mirror the nature of this book is not to criticize belittle blame bash or even praise but to give each individual a self portrait of how you re observed by others through your own eyes the intent of this book is not to change you to be someone else but for you to be the person you want others to see

will power is one of the strongest virtues a man can possess and no will power can be effective without the implementation of immediate actions taking action is very necessary just as having intention is success comes from within if you can succeed on the inside you can succeed in any area of your life the quest for success starts from within which is your mind plans don t count much but action does all plans projects goals dreams and visions remain on hold without applying action immediately what happens is that the drive and motivation to work on it fades out or dies when action is not carried out immediately have you ever at a point in your life had intentions to do things which now made you set goals towards it or you have even set goals to accomplish a particular task and all of a sudden you find out that the drive and passion to push that goal or to execute that goal to its fulfillment level disappears or diminishes and made that task become an item on your activity list then this book is for you everything you need to fulfill life and achieve destiny is inside of you it begins with your will power

Finding Your Power to Be Happy: Seven Practices to Bring Unconditional Happiness into Your Life 2015-04-25

learn to find the happiness that is natural to you and enjoy better relationships better health more success and a longer life the peculiar thing about us humans is we spend a lot of time working to find people and things that will make us happy in fact we seem to spend the majority of our time doing this however there is no guarantee that any of this effort will work there are lots of people who have hordes of people around them and who have lots of things but have been unable to make themselves happy the truth is happiness can be had with little effort have you ever been happy for no reason at all of course you have without anything changing in life happiness just appears we see it in young children all the time in fact we expect to see it in children if you happen to ask a smiling child why he or she is so happy at best the answer may be because for an adult this may be an unsatisfying answer but for the child it is the truth happiness exists just because as we age we seem to lose touch with happiness for no reason at all we see a world where everyone is striving for stuff striving for popularity striving striving striving the natural fount of happiness we once enjoyed disappears as we join them however that happiness is not gone all that happened is we lost our connection to it this book is about recovering that connection we all grow up believing that if we work hard and if we are good people we will enjoy good relationships with others good health success and a long life obviously this is not true there are a lot of rich old people who are not happy what we have what we do and the other circumstances of our lives do not provide authentic happiness instead happiness comes from inside of us and all by itself enables us to have secure relationships good health more success and longer lives so what is the secret of being happy being happy is a little like flipping a switch when it s on you are happy and when it s off you are not it s so easy how else can you explain being happy for no reason what you need to do is learn to turn it on and keep it turned on this book discusses seven practices that help you do that there is a lot of wisdom available about how to be happy most of it is thousands of years old but some is quite new the seven practices we will look at incorporate this wisdom to help you learn how to turn on happiness in your life this kind of happiness does not require changing anything in your life all you have to do is learn to turn it on
