Code of Federal Regulations 2013-07-18 events in rwanda in 1994 mark a landmark in the history of modern genocide up to one million people were killed in a planned public and political campaign in the face of indisputable evidence the un security council failed miserably in its response in this classic of investigative journalism linda melvern tells the compelling story of what really happened revealing both the scale speed and intensity of the unfolding genocide as well as exposing the governments and individuals who could have prevented what was happening if they had chosen to act the book also tells the unrecognised heroism of those who stayed on during the genocide from volunteer peacekeepers to courageous ngo workers twenty five years on from one of the darkest episodes in modern history a people betrayed is a shocking indictment of how rwanda was ignored then and how today it is remembered in the west
