impossible to distinguish and the truth becomes the most terrifying weapon of all in this thrilling tale filled with unrelenting suspense unforgettable characters and powerful traces of greed ambition and desire a masterful thief plots an impossible crime stealing the iranian crown jewels from the author of the wildly successful dexter series comes a new mesmerizing bad guy we can root for riley wolfe he s a master thief expert at disguise and not averse to violence when it s needed it s no accident though that riley targets the wealthiest 0.1 percent and is willing to kill them when they re in his way he despises the degenerate and immoral rich and loves stealing their undeserved and unearned valuables in this series launch riley aims for an extraordinary target in a heist that will make history riley will try to steal the crown jewels of iran yes these jewels are worth billions but the true attraction for grabbing them comes down to one simple fact it can t be done stealing these jewels is absolutely impossible the collection is guarded by space age electronics and two teams of heavily armed mercenaries no one could even think of getting past the airtight security and hope to get away alive let alone with even a single diamond from the imperial collection no one but riley wolfe he s always liked a challenge but this challenge may be more than even he can handle aside from the impenetrable security riley is also pursued by a brilliant and relentless cop who is barely a step behind him with the aid of his sometime ally a beautiful woman who is a master art forger riley wolfe goes for the prize that will either make him a legend or more likely leave him dead beautiful kaleidoscopic everyone should be watching megan bradbury from now on eimear mcbride baileys prize sweep everyone is watching is a love letter to new york and its people past present and future a pulse pounding thriller perfect for fans of lisa gardner and mary higgins clark with a sly nod toward alfred hitchcock s classic film rear window someone is watching boasts the extraordinary edge of your seat storytelling of bestselling author joy fielding at the height of her powers as a special investigator for a hotshot miami law firm bailey carpenter is smart savvy and fearless when she s assigned to spy on a deadbeat dad in the middle of the night bailey thinks nothing of the potential dangers only that she needs to gather evidence then she is blindsided attacked and nearly killed now the firm grip bailey once had on her life is shaken her nightmares merge into her waking hours and she s unable to venture beyond her front door without panicking a veritable prisoner in her own home bailey is uncertain whom she can trust but old habits die hard and soon bailey finds a new use for her idle binoculars casually observing from her window neighboring buildings and other people s lives this seemingly harmless diversion becomes a guilty pleasure when bailey fixates on the handsome guy across the street until she realizes that he is also watching her suddenly she must confront the terrifying possibility that he may be the man who shattered her life though crippled by fear bailey knows she can t ignore her suspicions and risk leaving a predator at large with the police making no headway in solving her case she s determined to overcome her terror and reclaim the power she lost by unmasking her attacker and taking him down herself but it s a harrowing battle that threatens to wreck bailey s credibility compromise an investigation and maybe even claim her sanity praise for someone is watching someone is watching gripped me from the first to the very last page bailey carpenter is a heroine who s both victim and warrior woman a fascinating sleuth who will linger with you long after you ve finished this thrilling read tess gerritsen joy fielding has long been a go to author for me she never fails to deliver an edge of your seat read and with her patented blend of complex characters and escalating suspense she is in top form here i highly recommend someone is watching karen robarbs joy fielding pens a spiraling tale of paranoia and suspense as sultry as a miami night readers will find a heroine to root for scold and ultimately adore in bailey carpenter though comparisons to rear window will inevitably arise fielding has created something even more remarkable a modern day gaslight in which both cat and mouse are real flawed and eminently relatable jenny milchman someone is watching is a gripping fast paced psychological thriller reminiscent of rear window and the works of lisa gardner not geared to the faint of heart fielding s story of one woman s search for justice understanding and internal peace is nothing short of arresting booklist starred review this engrossing standalone from bestseller fielding makes you care about bailey carpenter the characters pulsate with life and there are a few shocks in store for bailey and the reader before the denouement and the presence of jade claire s outspoken teen daughter blows everyone else off the page publishers weekly starred review a page out how to get back home but first he has to change the outcome of a bloody rebellion slender but weighty what is moving about this novel is its embrace of what has always driven kundera the delicate state of living between being and nothingness boston globe from the internationally acclaimed bestselling author of the unbearable lightness of being an entertaining and enchanting novel a fitting capstone on an extraordinary career slate casting light on the most serious of problems and at the same time saying not one serious sentence being fascinated by the reality of the contemporary world and at the same time completely avoiding realism that s the festival of insignificance readers who know milan kundera s earlier books know that the wish to incorporate an element of the unserious in a novel is not at all unexpected of him in immortality goethe and hemingway stroll through several chapters together talking and laughing and in slowness vera the author s wife says to her husband you ve often told me you meant to write a book one day that would have not a single serious word in it i warn you watch out your enemies are lying in wait kundera is finally and fully realizing his old aesthetic dream in this novel that we could easily view as a summation of his whole work a strange sort of summation strange sort of epilogue strange sort of laughter inspired by our time which is comical because it has lost all sense of humor what more can we say nothing just read only a deathbed promise to her dying father could force christina tretton to travel to tretteign grange the dark textured and lovingly narrated tom keneally booker prize winning author of schindler s ark corbett s atmospheric landscape with its eerie glacial light its drifts of fog and explosives wild geese and sequestered forest is so vividly realised and starkly described the cold and fog seem to creep beyond the page for the struggling residents under military occupation death comes delivered from the sky yet for sylvie and her family love persists in all its forms mireille juchau author of the world without us this novel in verse tells the story of the ill fated titanic through the eyes of several different passengers and crew as well as from a rat and the iceberg itself harrower s greatest novel is the watch tower 1966 the bitter story of two sisters laura and clare who lose their parents and fall under the sway of felix shaw an abusive and controlling drunk it is her masterpiece james wood new yorker after laura and clare are abandoned by their mother felix is there to help even to marry laura if she will have him little by little the two sisters grow complicit with his obsessions his cruelty his need to control set in the leafy northern suburbs of sydney during the 1940s the watch tower is a novel of relentless and acute psychological power elizabeth harrower was born in sydney in 1928 and moved to london in 1951 she travelled extensively and began to write fiction her first novel down in the city was published in 1957 and was followed by the long prospect a year later in 1959 she returned to sydney where she began working for the abc and as a book reviewer for the sydney morning herald in 1960 she published the catherine wheel the story of an australian law student in london her only novel not set in sydney the watch tower appeared in 1966 no further novels were published until may 2014 when harrower s lost novel in certain circles was released her work is austere intelligent ruthless in its perceptions about men and women she was admired by many of her contemporaries including patrick white and christina stead and is without doubt among the most important writers of the postwar period in australia elizabeth harrower died in sydney on 7 july 2020 at the age of ninety two haunting and delicate kirkus reviews this is a harrowing novel relentless in its depiction of marital enslavement spiritual self destruction and the exploited condition of women in a masculinist society it is a brilliant achievement washington post haunting harrower captures brilliantly the struggle to retain a self guardian each of harrower s four novels is concerned with entrapment of one sort or another through family or youth or love but the watch tower her last novel is almost like a distillation in its vision of the forces of good and evil something runs clear and strong through this wonderful painful novel the dark and the light the victim and the survivor suffering and joy the knowledge of both reality joan london lit hub elizabeth harrower s thrilling 1966 novel the watch tower comes rampaging back from decades of disgraceful neglect a wartime sydney story of two abandoned sisters and the arrival in their lives of felix one of literature s most ferociously realised nasty pieces of work helen garner australian a superb psychological novel that will creep into your bones michelle de kretser the monthly i read the watch tower with a mixture of fascination and horror it was impossible to put down her acute psychological assessments are made from gestures language and glances and she is brilliant on power isolation and class ramona koval australian to create a monster as continually credible comic and nauseating as felix is a feat of a very high order but to control that creation as miss harrower does so that clare remains the centre of interest is an achievement even more rare the watch tower is a triumph of art over virtuosity a dense profoundly moral novel of our time h g kippax sydney morning herald 19 november 1966 as gripping and terrifying as any horror story an astonishing book guardian the cell rings twice and then his old partner in his ear i m at the scene of what appears to be a murder suicide i d like you to come and take a look bring your sidekick with you if she s available retired detective bill hodes now runs a two person firm called finders keepers with his partner holly gibney they met in the wake of the mercedes massacre when a queue of people was run down by the diabolical killer brady hartsfield brady is now confined to room 217 of the lakes region traumatic brain injury clinic in an unresponsive state but all is not what it seems the evidence suggests that brady is somehow awake and in possession of deadly new powers that allow him to wreak unimaginable havoc without ever leaving his hospital room when bill and holly are called to a suicide scene with ties to the mercedes massacre they find themselves pulled into their most dangerous case yet one that will put their lives at risk as well as those of bill s heroic young friend jerome robinson and his teenage sister barbara brady hartsfield is back and planning revenge not just on hodes and his friends but on an entire city the clock is ticking in unexpected ways both a stand alone novel of heart pounding suspense and a sublimely terrifying final episode in the hodge trilogy end of watch takes the series into a powerful new dimension the extract above is abridged from end of watch the fourth novel in the blockbuster series from one of russia s most popular authors last watch returns us to the hyper imaginative world of sergei lukyanenko where the endless battle between good and evil is about to reach its climax anton gorodetsky is just getting a feel for his new powers when his boss gesar sends him to assist the scottish night watch in edinburgh in a murder investigation a young russian man has been murdered apparently by a vampire but the mystery is more than it seems and soon anton is himself in danger the murderer appears to be someone with intimate knowledge of the night watch before long anton realizes that a plot is being hatched by the forces of both darkness and light that unless he can intervene may mean nothing less than armageddon slender but weighty what is moving about this novel is its embrace of what has always driven kundera the delicate state of living between being and nothingness boston globe from the internationally acclaimed bestselling author of the unbearable lightness of being an entertaining and enchanting novel a fitting capstone on an extraordinary career slate casting light on the most serious of problems and at the same time saying not one serious sentence being fascinated by the reality of the contemporary world and at the same time completely avoiding realism that s the festival of insignificance readers who know milan kundera s earlier books know that the wish to incorporate an element of the unserious in a novel is not at all unexpected of him in immortality goethe and hemingway stroll through several chapters together talking and laughing and in slowness vera the author s wife says to her husband you ve often told me you meant to write a book one day that would have not a single serious word in it i warn you watch out your enemies are lying in wait kundera is finally and fully realizing his old aesthetic dream in this novel that we could easily view as a summation of his whole work a strange sort of summation strange sort of epilogue strange sort of laughter inspired by our time which is comical because it has lost all sense of humor what more can we say nothing just read harrower s greatest novel is the watch tower 1966 the bitter story of two sisters laura and clare who lose their parents and fall under the sway of felix shaw an abusive and controlling drunk it is her masterpiece james wood new yorker after laura and clare are abandoned by their mother felix is there to help even to marry laura if she will have him little by little the two sisters grow complicit with his obsessions his cruelty his need to control set in the leafy northern suburbs of sydney during the 1940s the watch tower is a novel of relentless and acute psychological power elizabeth harrower was born in sydney in 1928 and moved to london in 1951 she travelled extensively and began to write fiction her first novel down in the city was published in 1957 and was followed by the long prospect a year later in 1959 she returned to sydney where she began working for the abc and as a book reviewer for the sydney morning herald in 1960 she published the catherine wheel the story of an australian law student in london her only novel not set in sydney the watch tower appeared in 1966 no further novels were published until may 2014 when harrower s lost novel in certain circles was released her work is austere intelligent ruthless in its perceptions about men and women she was admired by many of her contemporaries including patrick white and christina stead and is without doubt among the most important writers of the postwar period in australia elizabeth harrower died in sydney on 7 july 2020 at the age of ninety two haunting and delicate kirkus reviews this is a harrowing novel relentless in its depiction of marital enslavement spiritual self destruction and the exploited condition of women in a masculinist society it is a brilliant achievement washington post haunting harrower captures brilliantly the struggle to retain a self guardian each of harrower s four novels is concerned with entrapment of one sort or another through family or youth or love but the watch tower her last novel is almost like a distillation in its vision of the forces of good and evil something runs clear and strong through this wonderful painful novel the dark and the light the victim and the survivor suffering and joy the knowledge of both reality joan london lit hub elizabeth harrower s thrilling 1966 novel the watch tower comes rampaging back from decades of disgraceful neglect a wartime sydney story of two abandoned sisters and the arrival in their lives of felix one of literature s most ferociously realised nasty pieces of work helen garner australian a superb psychological novel that will creep into your bones michelle de kretser the monthly i read the watch tower with a mixture of fascination and horror it was impossible to put down her acute psychological assessments are made from gestures language and glances and she is brilliant on power isolation and class ramona koval australian to create a monster as continually credible comic and nauseating as felix is a feat of a very high order but to control that creation as miss harrower does so that clare remains the centre of interest is an achievement even more rare the watch tower is a triumph of art over virtuosity a dense profoundly moral novel of our time h g kippax sydney morning herald 19 november 1966 as gripping and terrifying as any horror story an astonishing book guardian
