Erasing the Binary Distinction of Developed and Underdeveloped

this book challenges the binary distinction of developed and underdeveloped in the categorization of any country while proposing to erase this binary with a yardstick of parity through a sample comparative historical study focusing on the question of the emergence of the large scale steel industry 1880 1914 of four chosen countries two considered developed imperial uk and post colonial imperial usa and two considered underdeveloped imperial russia and colonial india it is shown how this yardstick of parity can be applied without the categorization of societies as either developed or underdeveloped print edition not for sale in south asia india sri lanka nepal bangladesh pakistan or bhutan

this book explores the festival of thaipusam in terms of its own inner dynamics the traditions and belief structures which ensure the festival s continuing relevance to malaysian hindus it argues that thaipusam reflects a growing sense of hindu identity in malaysia and an as yet inchoate unity it contends that while the kavadi ritual provides profound meaning at the individual and group level thaipusam furnishes a public arena for and gives expression to a powerful hindu resurgence largely though not exclusively fuelled by dravidian assertiveness in situating the festival within the context of a malaysia dominated by malay and islamic power brokers a society in which both the indian community and hinduism are relegated to the margins the book explores the festival of thaipusam as a vehicle for mobilization of religious symbols and values which not only simultaneously articulate ethnicity and thus resist the forces which threaten cultural and religious integrity but which also ultimately signal wider allegiances to the broader politico cultural world of an imagined
