THE BLOOD ATONEMENT DECEPTION 2010-11-19

the atonement deception explores the christian theological fiction that belief in jesus is the only way to receive divine forgiveness for one s sins biblically both jews and gentiles can receive forgiveness of sins through sincere repentant confessionary prayer directed to the god of israel this is true at all times and in all places there has never been a need for the so called intercession role jesus is supposed to play in attaining atonement the facts speak for themselves there is no truth to the christian contention that jesus died for our sins and salvation is only through jesus jesus death does not bring atonement from sin nor is it in any way a fulfillment of biblical prophecy bryan approaches st paul s letter to the romans with a number of aims in view first he wants to show which literary type or genre would have been seen by paul s contemporaries as being exemplified in the letter he also attempts to determine what we can surmise of paul s attitude and approach to the jewish bible the study involves discussion of and comparison with other literature from paul s time place and milieu including other writings attributed to paul

A Preface to Romans 2000

my jesus is a collection of twenty three sermons that is to say good news twenty three times twenty three jets of freedom preached in french protestant parishes or on the radio i say my jesus not out of pride but with humility for i know well that this jesus is not the jesus of everyone and moreover that it is not a question of imposing it on anyone this jesus is not the jesus of the historians or the scholars neither the jesus of the ecclesiastical hierarchies and other guardians of theological correctness he certainly is disputable and impertinent but this jesus is mine and i live from him the sermons ask four questions that are unsettling for any preacher and congregation how can the message of jesus still address us today what does jesus teach us about god that is truly new how should we receive the gospel of non violence of the sermon on the mount how can we remain a church of easter day it may appear that i am proposing answers to these four questions in fact my deepest desire is that the pertinence of their challenge not be forgotten beyond that it is up to each one to live with these difficult questions as he or she understands them louis simon paul s reading of the old testament continues to witness to the significance of reading the old testament in a christian way this study argues that a theological approach to understanding paul s appeal to and reading of the old testament especially isaiah offers important insights into the ways in which christians should read the old testament and a two testament canon today by way of example this study explores the ways in which isaiah 40 66 s canonical form presents the gospel in miniature with its movement from israel to servant to servants it is subsequently argued that paul follows this literary movement in his own theological reflection in 2 corinthians 5 14 6 10 jesus takes on the unique role and identity of the servant of isaiah 40 55 and paul takes on the role of the servants of the servant in isaiah 53 66 from this exegetical exploration conclusions are drawn in the final chapter that seek to apply a term from the history of interpretation to paul s reading that is the plain sense of scripture what does an appeal to plain sense broker and does paul s reading of the old testament look anything like a plain sense reading gignilliat concludes that paul is reading the old testament in such a way that the literal sense and its figural potential and capacity are not divorced but are actually organically linked in what can be termed a plain sense reading

The Year in Drashos 2006

calvinist determinism destroys moral responsibility and makes god the author of sin these two accusations are not new and were arguably anticipated by paul in romans 9 but they remain today the most important objections offered against calvinist determinist views of human free will this book is a philosophically rigorous and comprehensive defense of calvinism against these two families of arguments with respect to human moral responsibility it discusses whether determinism destroys free will turns humans into pets or puppets and involves or is analogous to coercion and manipulation it responds to the consequence argument and direct argument for incompatibilism the principle of alternate possibilities the ought implies can maxim and related claims with respect to the authorship of sin it discusses whether calvinist determinism improperly involves god in evil does it mean that god sins or causes sin or wills sin in problematic ways does god intend our sin or merely permit sin in each case the coherence of the calvinist view is defended against its most potent objections to reject the claim that calvinism is excusing sinners and blaming god
