backcover traces the history of connections between holocaust memory andthe discourse of anti racism an annotated list of readings is suggested for high school teachers of u s history and geography at grade 11 and for teachers of courses in the principles of democracy at grade 12 the list was designed for use in california where the 11th grade curriculum emphasizes 20th century u s history and the 12th grade concentrates on the institution of u s government and the comparison of different styles of government in the world today although the bibliography was prepared for use by california teachers teachers from around the united states and other parts of the world might find it a useful resource among principles of selection for the list were each book must be germane to the subject at hand each must deal with a significant aspect of the subject and each must be interesting and readable the reading list has six sections historical fiction biography and autobiography contemporary public affairs books about education u s history and european and world history db developed to meet the needs of modern united states history courses this text includes a review unit bridging early american history content before studying modern times this book highlights and examines the role of the textbook in legitimising established political and social orders it analyses the way in which the other is presented in school textbooks focusing on a number of countries in the middle east and north africa mena region and argues that the role of textbooks in developing and maintaining a national identity should be afforded greater critical attention textbooks can help form national identities by developing a society s collective memory this might involve a historical narrative which may be self contradictory or even fabricated to a certain extent including myths symbols and collective memories that divide us from them and ultimately resulting a dichotomy between the self and the other as well as addressing a range of theoretical questions relating to the study of textbooks generally the volume also covers a broad spectrum of middle eastern states and societies with contributions from turkey iran egypt cyprus lebanon iraq kurdistan jordan morocco tunisia israel and palestine it will be essential reading for researchers and students working in the fields of education sociology and history particularly those with an interest in national identities in the mena region to what extent does peoplehood make sense today can plural societies tell national stories without marginalizing their minorities should historians be concerned with stories of peoplehood these are the questions dealt with in this book it describes analyzes and theorizes the nature and history of stories of peoplehood and their implications for national identities public culture and academic historiography in societies characterized by cultural and social diversity the book offers theoretical reflections on the narrative character of national identities and empirical studies of the contexts in which they emerged one is always struck by the brilliant work of george sefa dei but nothing so far has demonstrated his pedagogical leadership as much as the current project with a sense of purpose so pure and so thoroughly intellectual dei shows why he must be credited with continuing the motivation and action for justice in education he has produced in this powerful volume teaching africa the same type of close reasoning that has given him credibility in the anti racist struggle in education sustaining the case for the democratization of education and the revising of the pedagogical method to include indigenous knowledge are the twin pillars of his style a key component of this new science of pedagogy is the crusade against any form of hegemonic education where one group of people assumes that they are the masters of everyone else whether this happens in south africa canada united states india iraq brazil or china dei s insights suggest that this hegemony of education in pluralistic and multi ethnic societies is a false construction we live pre eminently in a world of co cultures not cultures and sub cultures and once we understand this difference we will have a better approach to education and equity in the human condition exceptionally gifted children is unique the first edition of this book published in 1993 introduced 15 remarkable children some of the most gifted young people ever studied and traced their path through school exploring their academic achievements and in some cases enforced underachievement their emotional development their social relationships and their family relationships and upbringing this new edition reviews these early years but also follows the young people over the subsequent ten years into adulthood no previous study has traced so closely and so sensitively the intellectual social and emotional development of highly gifted young people this 20 year study reveals the ongoing negative academic and social effects of prolonged underachievement and social isolation imposed on gifted children by inappropriate curriculum and class placement and shows clearly the long lasting benefits of thoughtfully planned individual educational programs the young adults of this study speak out and show how what happened in school has influenced and still influences many aspects of their lives miraca gross provides a clear practical blueprint for teachers and parents who recognise the special learning needs of gifted children and seek to respond effectively globalisation ideology and education policy reforms which is the 11th volume in the 12 volume book series globalisation
